The newspaper article on April 22

Title: Average 64 years fights on the Ice. International friendship games between Canada & Japan

Vanstar Ice Hockey team (average 61 years old) has a game with Canadian Senior team on April 21 in Yokohama. The total player's average age is 64.4 years old. The players with white & grey hair enjoy friendship game of martial arts on the ice. Vanstar Team was established in 1986. The experienced players of lawyers, board members of company, medical doctors, and professional ice hockey players join the team. One of the players Mr.Kansai told " normally Vanstar has older players in Japan and competitors have younger such as around 50 years old. But today average age of Canada team is 70. Why we lose the game ? " . The oldest player of Vanstar in this game is 69 years old lawyer Mr.Shimojo, who joined the team after 20 years blank period and dreams to play in Canada next year at the age of 70. Today's game was really white-hot and exciting. Players show block by body and fight for pack.

The result of the game was that Vanstar won the game at the score 6 to 1. Both teams respect each other with shake hands after the game over.
