ENRICHING LIVES - INSPIRING CREATIVITY

A MOBILE ARTS PROGRAM FOR YOUR RESIDENTS

About Us

Joyful Palette has a simple mission: to bring the joy and therapeutic power of art directly to your senior community, while simplifying the activity planning and coordination for you!

We offer mobile art enrichment classes to senior living facilities around the Fox Valley and Green Bay Areas because we believe art makes life more colorful and meaningful, no matter your age or abilities.

Brianna is gifted not only with her art but also in teaching and coaching each artist. Brianna's teaching style is soft, respectful and encouraging for all of us. She is highly recommended and I look forward to her next class!"

Catherine
Senior Art Student

Thank you!

My name is Brianna Hardie and I am the founder and lead instructor of Joyful Palette. Thank you for taking the time to review our mission and services.

I have been a professional artist and community engagement art instructor for over 15 years, I love sharing the joy and therapeutic benefits of art with students of all ages and abilities!

Joyful Palette was born from my lifelong passion for art, a deep connection to the senior community, and a desire to make a meaningful impact in my local Wisconsin community. I know how much joy art brings to our lives and I am committed to sharing this joy with senior communities of the Fox Valley and Green-Bay Areas.

Thank you for taking the time to read about Joyful Palette and for considering our services for your valued residents! Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions!

Warmest Regards,

Brianna Hardie
