General Rules for our Central States District: (slightly different from National Festival)

1. Only one person may be entered per form and all items entered must be the work of the entrant. Limit of ten (10) classes per person. See complete listing of competition, classes, and guidelines in "Cultural Redbook 2023" found at "<https://americanturners.org>" page under (Key Documents)
2. All items must be entered under one age group. Age as of September 7th, 2025.
3. All items entered must have been produced from August 2015 through September 27, 2025. Entries must not have earned awards at previous festivals.
4. Each item must be marked with cultural competition labels, found in Cultural Redbook 2023. All information printed clearly. Attach to the left side of each item.
5. No item shall be accepted from an entrant who is earning or has earned ¼ their annual income producing work of the type entered. Retirees are included.
6. Each person may enter as many and not more than three (3) items or three (3) sets in each subclass of a class. (for example, a collection is a set containing many items).
7. You may send items in class 8–9-10 (written work) and Society Publications to accompany this entry form.
8. Items will be accepted at Oak Shade Grove in the Swiss House on September 27, 2025 starting at 1:00PM. No entries will be accepted after 3:00PM. Entries will be judged starting at 3:00PM.
9. A judge has the right to put an entry in another class or subclass if deemed appropriate. All items will be judged. Write on label "Original Design" if the item was designed by you and not from instructions. (Include index card on how the work is original)
10. For this contest we will also accept a photo of your cultural entry sent via email to promote participation without traveling or mailing.
