President's Message

For those who have participated before welcome back and to all the newbies we hope you enjoy the show. It's exciting to finally be hosting a show again after our few years of dealing with Disease issues in the poultry world. What a way to welcome everyone back by including, as part of the show, the celebration of PPBA's 75th anniversary! In addition, we are also proud to be hosting the ABA and APA National meets.

PPBA takes pride in using some of the top judges in the country and we provide competition in all classes that is the best in the west. We hope you will come and show with us and enjoy the weekend. Please take note that the PPBA is offering bonus prize money for Grand Champion of Show, above the normal amounts, for any individual that is a current member of all three associations (ABA/APA/PPBA)

We will be using the Holiday Inn Express and Candlewood Suites as our host hotels. Also RV's are welcomed with power/water hookups at festival grounds.

We ask that participants follow CDC recommendations for health concerns of all. We will have detailed guidelines in each exhibitor pack of current regulations at time of check in.

Anthony E. Rose
