Dear Mr. Esdale:

Thank you for again contacting my office regarding your request for an investigation.

After carefully reviewing your file, including the information you previously provided, I have concluded that there is no further action or administrative remedy our office could take since the last time we contacted the Department of Justice on your behalf.

Should you have any additional questions or concerns, please contact my Washington, D. C. office in writing via U. S. mail only at the following address:

U. S. Senator Bill Nelson
