I have now lived in Florida for over a year and loving every minute. I have no regrets about leaving Las Vegas apart from the good people we left behind. I still have many places, cities, beaches, bars, and restaurants to see.

Real Estate has given me the opportunity to visit a lot of communities and areas ranging from Ocala, Tampa, Daytona, Vero Beach, Clermont, Altamonte Springs, Sanford, and Orlando of course.

You meet a variety of people in this business with all sorts of needs and challenges. They always say every closing is different. I used to think working in a casino had a lot of challenges, Real Estate looks glamorous and easy until you look at all the other parts of the job. You spend 80% on marketing alone. If nobody knows who you are, nobody will know that you are a Realtor.

I do believe I am now set up for success, knowing that I have set up all the right foundations. I have many programs that can assist you in finding that Perfect Home. Being your own CEO has many responsibilities and commitments. I am dedicated to making this career a success and look forward to helping as many people as possible to find their Perfect Home.
