

These are mostly independent, volunteer-run operations, each with their own rules and missions. Be respectful and understanding of how they operate, so you can get your donations to where they will be truly appreciated.

Org. Name	Items Accepted	Drop-Off Location	Contact Info	Other Details
East Cooper Community Outreach (ECCO)	Food pantry items, personal hygiene, cleaning supplies. In-season clothing for men, women and children (4T and up), shoes, purses, jewelry, linens and bedding.	1145 Six Mile Road Donation Center is staffed M-F 10-4 Green bins at back of parking lot are available for clothing drop 24/7	eccocharleston.org	Torn, stained or otherwise unusable clothing and bedding (including all used socks and underwear) can be bagged separately and labeled "Recycle"
East Cooper Home Store	Furniture, appliances, housewares, building materials, light fixtures (NO mattresses)	469 Long Point Road M-Sat. 9-6	843-849-8002 to schedule large item pick-up	ECHS is volunteer run, with all monies supporting Habitat for Humanity and other local missions
My Sister's House	Please see website		my-sisters-house.org	Assists victims of domestic and sexual violence and human trafficking.
Goodwill Industries	Clothing, household items, furniture (NO mattresses)	1141 Six Mile Road 1220 Ben Sawyer Blvd.	palmettogoodwill.org	A national job-training program that operates thrift stores
Kidney Foundation	Clothing, household items, furniture (NO mattresses) Car donations	1207 N. Main St Summerville 3125 Glenn McConnell Pkwy 9-5:30 daily	843-343-3332
Cathy Keagy assists needy families in North Charleston	Clean (unstained) mattresses, furniture and useful household basics for those setting up apartments. Also cleaning supplies, hygiene, and clean bedding items	1218 Old Ivy Way in Brickyard Plantation (drop off on her porch)	Text her at 843-793-9814 to arrange pick-up of larger items and mattresses.

Org. Name	Items Accepted	Drop-Off Location	Contact Info	Other Details
Hope to Home	Kitchen basics, and small appliances, basic furniture in good condition		hopetohomesc.org h2hfurniture@icloud.com	Helps to set up basic apartment essentials for individuals and families coming out of distressed situations.
Low Country Orphan Relief	New or like new children's clothing (newborn and up) plush toys, kids books, school supplies and backpacks	All East Bay Deli locations (except Moncks Corner) Rusty Bull (both locations) Charleston Prestige Cleaners	lowcountryorphanrelief.org	Provide emergency clothing and essential supplies to abused and neglected children in the lowcountry.
Bed Shred	Old mattresses and box springs	Call or go online to schedule pick-up	843-557-5474 bedshred.com	A for profit business that will recycle and environmentally dispose of old mattresses, so there is less in our landfills.
God's Goods	Clothing, housewares, furniture, artwork, etc.	3008 N. Hwy 17 (Inside Sweetgrass Mercantile) 9-5 M-Sat	843-708-7711	Volunteer run thrift store that supports a variety of local non-profit organizations