Located in the heart of Downtown Salt Lake City, this modern nail spa offers a variety of treatments that are accommodating to your wants and needs. It is located close to the major hotels and convention centers yet has easily accessible, free parking. They offer a wide variety of services including manicures, pedicures, acrylics, gel (shellac) polish, facials, and waxing. The space was recently remodeled at a cost of over $100k.

It is the top rated nail spa in the area, with numerous active and repeat customers, including some high profile athletes in the area. It comes with a loyal and dedicated staff of independent professionals who are individually licensed and fully capable of running the business. It is truly a turn-key operation waiting for a new owner who is ready to make money from day one. The seller is ready to retire but will assist the buyer with the transition of the business. Seller does very little advertising which leaves a lot of potential to gain new clients.
