

Northbrook Farmers Market COVID-19 Addendum for Guest Vendors

This addendum is effective on the date of the signature last-applied hereto and becomes an addendum to the terms and conditions of the agreement, in whatever form existing, between the guest vendor named below ("vendor") and the entity which operates the market listed below ("market"), authorizing the vendor to operate at the market.

In exchange for the mutual terms and agreements set forth herein, the parties hereto do hereby agree as follows:

A. If an individual vendor, member of their household, or member of their staff/employee experience symptoms related to COVID-19 (including shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fever or chills, fatigue, new loss of taste or smell; and listed in full detail here - https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms_testing/symptoms.html):

1. The individual vendor or staff/employee affected cannot be onsite at market.
2. The individual vendor or staff/employee affected cannot return to market until at least 24 hours have passed since their last fever without taking any fever reducing medication.
3. If the individual vendor or employee affected is tested for COVID-19, the vendor or employee cannot be onsite at market until they receive the test results. If those test results are negative and they have been identified as a close contact of a COVID-19 case, they need to wait out the rest of their quarantine period.
4. These directions follow CDC guidance which can be found at: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/hcp/disposition-in-home-patients.html>

B. If an individual vendor, member of their household, or member of their staff/employee test positive for COVID-19:

1. The individual vendor or staff/employee affected cannot be onsite at market.
2. The individual vendor or staff/employee affected cannot return to market until: 10 days since symptoms first appeared; AND 24 hours with no fever without the use of fever-reducing medications; AND COVID-19 symptoms have improved (for example, cough, shortness of breath).
3. These directions follow CDC guidance which can be found at: When You Can be Around Others After You Had or Likely Had COVID-19.
4. The vendor will notify the local health department where their business is based, if different than where the market is located, if required by the local health department.
5. Market management will notify the health department where the market is located. Additionally, the vendor's business should follow guidance from the Illinois Department of Public Health.

C. If an individual vendor, a member of their household, or member of their staff/employee has had contact (within six feet for more than 15 minutes) with someone who has tested positive for COVID-19:

1. The individual vendor or staff/employee affected cannot be onsite at market.
2. The individual vendor or staff/employee affected cannot return to market until 14 days from that contact.

In the event the Illinois Department of Health or a local health department issue more guidance or directives, subsequent to the signatures being applied hereto, that guidance or directive(s) must be followed.

The terms and conditions herein are subject to change as COVID-19 guidance from the Illinois Department of Health and the CDC are updated. The market reserves the right to revise the terms and condition herein to serve the interests of public health and safety. Market management will notify vendors of any such revisions by email, effective the next market day.

In the event of a public health emergency the market, through its designee(s), may communicate revisions verbally, effective immediately upon communication, and such verbal communications shall have the same force and affect as if set forth herein in writing.

This addendum, and any other changes to the vendor agreement for this market season will be reviewed prior to the start of the next market season.

The parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, do hereby execute this addendum on the date set forth below and by and through persons duly authorized to enter into agreements on behalf of their respective interests.
