

Friends of Northbrook Farmers Market Membership Form

Who are Friends of Northbrook Farmers Market?

We are a group of people who love our local farmers market (we call ourselves Onion Heads for short and for fun!), and are dedicated to helping it thrive in our community.

We do this by promoting the mission and goals of the Northbrook Farmers Market.

This includes:

- Working to increase public awareness of the farmers market and all that it brings to the greater Northbrook community; namely, the economic, health, and social benefits of having a weekly farmers market in the heart of our community.
- Educating residents on the many benefits of buying local, eating healthy, and living green.
- Promoting the understanding of healthy food systems and how it all begins with our local farming families and entrepreneurs.
- Providing a vehicle for people to volunteer in an organized fashion as much and as often as they wish--volunteer on one project or a dozen--it's up to you!

Dues are $10 annually and all you need to be an Onion Head is a willingness to learn and pitch in when and where you are able.

In return you will have our undying gratitude, and will receive an official Onion Head t-shirt!

Please visit our website at www.NorthbrookFarmersMarket.org to see what we are all about and decide if you wish to join us.
