One of my first assignments for my college newspaper was to cover weekend maneuvers with the Air Force ROTC. When I boarded an ancient C-119 cargo plane for a training flight-my first time ever on a plane- a gruff Sergeant strapped me into a parachute. "What do I do with this?" I asked nervously. "If we're going down," he said, "jump out of the plane and pull the RIP cord." "When do I pull the RIP cord?" I yelled as he walked away. "Before you hit the ground!" He called back.

I was in a restaurant recently and I desperately needed to fart! The music was so loud I timed my farts to the loudest beat of the music and after a couple of songs, I was starting to feel better. I finished my coffee and noticed that everyone was staring at me. Just then I realized that I was listening to my iPod!

Sadly, no one is safe from receiving the dreaded pink slip. Recently a job application came across my desk at the federal personnel office in Washington DC. It was written on a standard form which includes the question, "Why did you leave your previous employment?" The applicant a former US congressman responded, "the express wish of 116,000 voters!"

When I was a baby, I kept a diary. Recently I was re-reading it. It said, 'day one still tired -from the move. - Day 2 Everybody talks to me like I'm an idiot.' And I can remember turning from one year old to two. I was very upset because I figured in one year my age doubled. I thought if this keeps up, by the time I'm seven I'll be 64!

Things you learn as you get older.

1. Never under any circumstances take a sleeping pill and a laxative on the same night.
2. If you had to identify in one word the reason why the human race has not achieved, and never will achieve, its full potential, that word would be meetings!
3. You should never say anything to a woman that even remotely suggests that you think she's pregnant unless you can see an actual baby emerging from her at that moment!
4. Never lick a steak knife!
5. And the one thing that unites all human beings, regardless of age, gender, religion, or economic status or ethnic background, is that, deep down inside, we ALL believe that we are above average drivers!

A lawyer cross examined a pathologist, trying to establish a time frame for the death and the post mortem. The pathologist said the examination took place in the evening. "And the victim was dead at the time, is that correct?" Ask the lawyer. "No," reply the pathologist straight faced. "He was just sitting on the table wondering why I was doing an autopsy on him."

Businessman to colleague;
"The upside of what I'm proposing is a huge profit. The downside is 800 hours of community service!"

Bringing a newborn on an airplane, and you get 'the look'. Not one of, "oh what a cute baby." It's more like, "Please God, don't let that mom sit next to me." So when our baby began to wail just after takeoff, you could have cut the tension with a Tickle Me Elmo doll. Was my wife rattled? Not at all. She lullabies our daughter with; I'm teething, on a jet plane. Don't know when I'll be calm again.
