A teacher was giving her primary students a lesson in logical thinking. "This is the scene," says the teacher." A man falls out of his boat in the middle of the river and begins splashing and yelling. Knowing he can't swim; his wife runs down to the bank." The teacher then asks, "Why do you think she ran to the bank?" The little girl raised her hand and replies, "to draw out all of his savings!?"

A woman's car was damaged by hail, so she took it to The Body Shop. She was told it would cost $5000 to fix it. She said that was an outrage and demanded The Body Shop fix it cheaper.

 The owner of the garage told her she could blow into the tail pipe and that would push the dents out. When she arrived home, she started to blow into the tailpipe. Her roommate asked what she was doing, and the woman answered that she was blowing the dents out of her car. The roommate laughed and said it wouldn't work. "You have to roll the windows up first!"

Did you hear about the politician that developed a brain eating bacteria? He managed to survive but the doctor said the bacteria died.

If you had purchased $1000 of AIG stock one year ago you would have $42.00 left. With Lehman You would have $6.60 left. With a Fannie or Freddie, you would have less than $5.00 left. So, if you had purchased $1000 worth of beer one year ago, drink all of the beer, and turned in the cans for the aluminum recycling refund, you would have $214.00. So based on the above, the best current investment advice is to drink heavily, and recycle. It is called 401-Keg....

A man goes in a restaurant with an ostrich. The waiter takes the order and the ostrich says, "same for me." After eating, the man takes the exact change from his pocket. Next day, they came in again and ordered something else and when they were done, the guy put his hand in his pocket and pulled out the exact amount. This happened every day until finally the waiter had to ask. "Every time you pay me, you have the exact change in your pocket. How come?" "Well, one day I found an old lamp. Cleaning it, a genie appeared. He gave me a wish. I wish to always have the exact amount for anything I bought." "That's brilliant," the waiter says. "So, what's with the ostrich?" The waiter said, "my second wish was a tall nice-looking chick with long legs, who agrees with everything I say."

Driving home today I noticed a man, casually dressed and wearing a post office hat, running down the sidewalk. Close behind him were three dogs. I had to laugh when I heard the man call out, “but it’s my day off!”

My mom sent me a text that said, “I love you,” And she ended it with a poop EMOJI. I asked why she added the emoji. She said, “I thought it was a Hershey’s Kiss!”

Did You Know?? England is old and small, and the locals were running out of places to bury their loved ones. The citizens then started to dig up graves and take the bones to a bone house in order to reuse the graves. It was then noticed that a lot of the coffins had scratch marks on the inside and realized people had been buried alive. To try and stop this they started burying the “dead” with a string tied to the inside of the coffin.

The string came out of the grave with a bell attached. A watchman stayed near the grave. Thus the expression, SAVED BY THE BELL!!

“I’m going to fire that chauffeur,” shouted the husband. “This is the third time this week he almost killed me!” “Now dear,” his wife soothed, “Give the poor man another chance.

A group of Americans traveling by tour bus stopped at a cheese farm in Holland. A young guy led them through the cheese making process. He showed them a lovely hillside where many goats were grazing. “These”, he said “Are the older goats that can no longer produce.” He then asked, “What do you do in America with your old goats?” A spry old gentleman smiled, “They send us on bus tours!”

Driving home from work, Rodney came to a stop sign. Instead of stopping, he just slowed down. A police officer stopped him and Rodney asked, “I slowed down. What is the difference between slowing and stopping? You’re being too picky!” “Let me give you a demonstration period.” Said the police officer. He pulled out his night stick and started beating Rodney.” Now, what do you want me to do stop or slow down?”

Working as a teacher in prison, one of my students kept missing classes. First it was because he had a tooth pulled; then his tonsils were removed. Finally, he chopped off the tip of this finger and workshop. All of this led one guard to comment, “We better keep an eye on this guy. He seems to be trying to escape one piece at a time.”

It used to be death and taxes. Now, of course, there is shipping and handling!

A young executive was leaving the office when he found the CEO standing in front of a paper shredder with a piece of paper in his hand. "Listen," said the CEO, "This is a very sensitive and important document here and my secretary has gone for the night. Can you make this thing work for me?" "Certainly" said the young executive. He turned the machine on, inserted the paper and press the button. "Excellent, excellent!" Said the CEO, as his paper disappeared. "I just need one copy..."

A cowboy applied for an insurance policy. "Have you ever had any accidents?" Ask the agent. "Nope," replied the cowboy. "Though a Bronc did kick in two of my ribs a couple years ago and a snake bit me on the ankle." "Wouldn't you call those accidents?" Ask the agent. "Naw," The cowboy replied. "They did it on purpose."

I drove by the Fire Department, and they had a big sign out front that said: are your house numbers visible? And I thought: who cares, how about just stopping at the house that's on fire.

As you know some of us have trouble with all the new technology. I had a problem yesterday with my computer, so I called Eric, the 11-year-old that lives next door. Eric clicked on a couple of buttons and solved the problem period as he was walking away, I called after him, "what was wrong with it?" It was an ID 10 T error. "He replied. "Write it down and you can figure it out." ID10T... I used to like the little jerk!!
