

KeyFactor & Co. LLC is an education company, not a lender. None of these rates are offers to lend or an extension of credit. Data provided by Optimal Blue, LLC. Not an offer to lend. KeyFactor & Co. LLC is not a lender and does not extend credit of any kind. The OBMMI™ methodology is straightforward, simply taking the average rate of all appropriate locks locked through the Optimal Blue product eligibility and pricing engine on a given day. No adjustments to the rates that account for buy-up or buy-down decisions made by individuals are performed. These indices leverage data from Optimal Blue PPE lock requests (approximately 35% of all locks nationwide) aggregated on a daily basis and updated nightly with the previous day's locks. Weekends and holidays are excluded due to lack of data. All applicable product types are included unless otherwise specified, and the breakdown of customer types is by mortgage company (82.49%), bank (15.30%), credit union (1.92%), and service provider (0.30%).
