A Dog Named Onyx

On May 28, 2017 I had a Meet and Greet with a new client, her husband and their furkid, a pitbull named Onyx.

I remember during the meet and greet I sat in Onyx's chair (I didn't know it was his), but that didn't matter, I was going to love on him and hug on him the whole time anyway. He had the HUGE pittie smile and loved attention yet didn't demand it.

Onyx not only become one of my babies, he brought me a family. His parents have become some of my closest friends in the last two years. All because this smiling pittie needed a pet sitter.

Onyx passed away on Tuesday May 28, 2019 - exactly 2 years since he came into my life. His body was a ticking time-bomb, having had emergency surgery a month prior which revealed an aggressive form of cancer. We knew we only had a short amount of time left with him, and made it count. He had great days, loved on by many friends family it was obvious he felt great and was never left alone. His mom and I were with him when he started the rapid decline after having a good, normal morning. We knew this was coming, just didn't know when. Turns out it was on our 2 year anniversary of meeting. He was surrounded by his loving family and I was fortunate to be with them while we said goodbye to him. He always had this great smile. I will miss him and am thankful for the friends and family he brought into my life. I will never forget his awesome smile.

In-Home Video Cameras

Did you know we LOVE clients with video?

In the pet sitting industry, the subject of in-home cameras is a very hot topic. We have found that the most outspoken pet sitters are those that don't like cameras. We at Furkids Sitting & Services are not in that category. We LOVE them and will occasionally ask clients with cameras to check their video during severe weather to make sure the furkids are safe.

We feel if you are watching us while we are at your house, you will see us loving on your furkids, talking to them and if you are unlucky, singing. Keep this in mind when you interview someone to who will be staying at your home. What will they say when you tell them they will be on camera?

Happy Drooling

According to our friends in The Feline Health Center at Cornell College of Veterinary Medicine, "happy drooling" is a term used when your cat is purring softly, kneading away and drooling. It is theorized that this drooling may reflect back to kittenhood and happily nursing on their mother. If close inspection shows your cat has a healthy mouth and feels good, then it is likely simply her idiosyncrasy. Similarly, some cats will drool and purr softly as they rub or head butt against you. This might be a form of marking behavior, as they leave some drool to dry on you.
