

Hello, Pet Parents!

Welcome to the December 2018 of the Furkids Newsletter. In this issue >>>> Please feel free to share the information to friends and family through Facebook and email.

If you have any thoughts of products you believe improve life for yourself or your furkids, please send me a note! It may be featured in an upcoming newsletter.

SCHEDULE NOW FOR THE HOLIDAYS!

Please schedule early for the end of the year travels. While we absolutely hate to tell anyone no, there is a point at which we are completely full. Each year we accept new clients for the holiday season, however we give our current clients first chance at the schedule. Schedule now!

Furkids Favorites

[The SAFE way to adopt a dog for your kids this year!][Kids Rescue Runts]

Rescue Runts are adoptable pets that you rescue, groom & love! Rescue Runts arrive on your doorstep with matted fur, dirty paws, bandages and Fleas. Care for your rescue runt using the included tweezers, towel and brush to remove their Fleas, wipe away their tears, clean their paws and comb their fur. Remove their bandages and perk up their ears to complete the transformation! choose a name to write on the collar to make the adoption official. Rescue Runts' messy fur, downturned ears, dirty paws and bandages can be restored for repeated animal rescue play. Give us a home to call our own!

12 Holiday Safety Tips for Cats

It's the most wonderful time of the year... for mischief and massive vet bills! See our holiday safety tips for cats — based on the "12 Days of Christmas."

1. On the first day of Christmas, my kitty gave to me ... chewed up branches on the Christmas tree.
2. On the second day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... two broken baubles under my feet.
3. On the third day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... three broken snowglobes full of antifreeze.
4. On the fourth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... four bitten birds.
5. On the fifth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... five colon strings.
6. On the sixth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... six guests leaving.
7. On the seventh day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... seven lights a-blinking.
8. On the eighth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... an empty glass (and a case of gas).
9. On the ninth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... nine lives' worth of worry.
10. On the tenth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... 10 unwrapped gifts.
11. On the eleventh day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... 11 false flowers.
12. On the twelfth day of Christmas my kitty gave to me ... 12 unplanned kittens. (SPAY & NEUTER!)

It may seem like holiday celebrations and cats don't mix, but as long as you take care to catproof your Christmas, there's no better combination. Safe decorations and present precautions mean a Christmas morning spent playing with the cat toys Santa brought, instead of visiting the vet's office.

Heather Marcoux is a freelance writer and mom to the Christmas tree wrecking crew known as Ghost Cat and Specter. You can follow their yuletide misadventures through the @ghostpets Instagram account. Mom is on Twitter, @HeatherMarcoux. All her Christmas ornaments are plastic.

Did You Know?

Not only do we provide in home pet sitting, but we also do transportation! If your furkid needs a lift to or from the groomer or being boarded, give us a call to discuss your options.

As always, kiss those babies for me,
Amy at Furkid Sitting & Services, LLC

©2018 Furkid Sitting & Services, LLC | Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70809, United States

Like

Web Version

Preferences

Forward

Unsubscribe

Powered by
GoDaddy Email Marketing®