About the District

Elgin/New Leipzig Public School is a small town school with big advantages. Home to 160 students in grades K-12, we have 22 licensed staff members in a variety of curriculum areas. Our curriculum includes a full selection of ITV courses to complete a top-notch education for all students. Students attend our school from the towns of Elgin, New Leipzig, Carson, Mott and Glen Ullin.

Our school is part of the Southwest Special Education Unit, along with schools in Mott, Carson, and Flasher.

We use Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS) in our school to provide targeted instruction for all of our students. In addition, we are a school-wide Title I school. These program provides additional resources to all students to provide targeted instruction for specific learning needs.

About our Community

We are a predominately agricultural community. Our district serves an area of 692 square miles. We are close to Lake Tschida and are on the edge of the Badlands. We are an hour and half drive from both Bismarck and Dickinson. Our community has several active organizations such as Lions, 4-H, Community Betterment, Job Development Authority, Cubs Scouts, and Girls Scouts. We have a host of outdoor activities available and a hardworking community. The city of Elgin has a hospital and clinic as well as a John Deere dealership that are major sources of employments. Both the city of Elgin and New Leipzig have bank branches that also provide an important source of employment as well as support for our award-winning school.

The mission of the Elgin/New Leipzig School is to provide a positive and safe environment that promotes lifelong learning to all individuals.
