Retired from corporate America in 2009, and have been blessed to be able to turn my part time acting career into a full time, legitimate, union card carrying stage and film career. Having the time of my life! Trying to keep this old frame in decent enough shape to keep auditioning and booking roles! Who knew going totally grey so early would pay off!

We moved to Mississippi two years ago- finally able to mooch off of our daughter and son-in-law, who were gracious enough to take us in, until we are too old and feeble to care for ourselves. Then she will put us in a home (or possibly a permanent cruise ship) with 24-hour care. So we are currently living our best lives and not paying her a dime, much like she did to us in her youth. When we get sick of looking at them, we take our fifth-wheel camper and hit the road!! In our camper, we can drink to our hearts content and not have to stumble far to get to our bed.
