Dear Sponsor,

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity stands as a beacon of brotherhood, scholarship, and service since its establishment on January 9, 1914, at Howard University in Washington, D.C. Our founders, Honorable A. Langston Taylor, Honorable Leonard F. Morse, and Honorable Charles I. Brown, envisioned a fraternity dedicated to serving the community, a vision encapsulated in our motto, "Culture for Service and Service for Humanity."

In Orlando, our Gamma Delta Sigma Chapter, founded by Brother Leonard F. Morse in 1951, has been a pillar of support for over 70 years. Through programs like Bigger and Better Business, Education, Social Action, and the Sigma Beta Club, we've strived to uplift and empower our communities.

We're proud to honor the legacy of the late Honorable Brother John R. Lewis, a champion of justice and equality, through our upcoming fundraising luncheon, "The Getting in Good Trouble Awards," on June 21, 2024. Brother Lewis's dedication to standing up for what's right serves as inspiration for our award recipients, who embody his spirit of courage and activism.

Half of the proceeds from the event will go towards scholarships for deserving youth in our communities and supporting our Sigma Beta Club. This vital program provides mentorship and educational opportunities to young males aged 8 to 18, fostering values, leadership skills, and cultural awareness.

The remaining funds will be dedicated to philanthropic initiatives within the greater Orlando area, furthering our commitment to community service and upliftment.

To ensure the success of our awards ceremony and continue supporting our youth, we humbly seek the assistance of our community and Brother Lewis's former colleagues in Congress.

Your support can make a meaningful difference in the lives of our youth and the broader Orlando community. Together, we can continue the legacy of service and leadership exemplified by Brother John R. Lewis.

Please consider sponsoring at one (1) of the levels listed below.

We are a recognized 501(c)(3) non-profit organization so your donation to this effort is tax-deductible. Your generosity would be greatly appreciated and acknowledged at our event.
