SLIDING SCALE FEE AGREEMENT

FEES

The standard fee for telehealth therapy is $150 per 40 minute session and $180 per 55 minute session. A sliding scale fee of $60 per 40 minute session is applicable for clients who have identified a financial need and cannot afford current market rates of psychotherapy. All sliding scale fee clients must apply and be accepted for membership (at the cost of the client) at Open Path Psychotherapy Collective.

If the client's financial needs or insurance benefits change, and they no longer qualify for a sliding scale fee, they are required to inform both Open Path Psychotherapy Collective and Alexandra Khoobani, MSW, LCSW. The client will then either pay the standard fee for subsequent sessions, will renegotiate a fee that is between the Open Path sliding scale fee and standard fee (i.e. $90), or will discontinue services after appropriate termination procedures have taken place.
