One Voice: Doubters, Dreamers, and Disciples, today Jesus calls you to come up the mountain and pray. Will you come?

Many Voices: We will go wherever Jesus leads us.

One Voice: Will you follow when Christ's glory overwhelms your senses, and you sit astounded at God's greatness?

Many Voices: We will go wherever Jesus leads us.

One Voice: Will you follow when Jesus insists that you return to the valley where people are hurting and in need of good news?

Many Voices: We will go wherever Jesus leads us.

One Voice: Come! Let us worship God, whose glory shines on the mountaintop and in the eyes of our neighbors.

Spirit Journey Adult Sunday School LENTEN STUDY

When words fall short, the cross still speaks.

Despite the crucifixion's central place in Christian faith, the New Testament offers few clear answers about how Jesus' death saves, or why, exactly, he had to die. The New Testament writers use a host of metaphors—ransom, sacrifice, reconciliation, victory—but never explain exactly how it works or why it had to happen this way.

What if that's because we've been asking the wrong question? What if the cross isn't a transaction to be explained, but a living Word from God meant to transform who we are and how we live?

Sanctuary

A Special All Church Charge Conference is a meeting of our congregation to deal with a bequest given by Gae Fuller. Our District Superintendent, Rev. Lisa Grant will be in attendance.

All members of the congregation are invited and welcome to attend.

••••• PASTOR ED'S LENTEN BOOK STUDY: The Cross & the Lynching Tree

The cross and the lynching tree are separated by 2,000 years. One is the universal symbol of Christian faith; the other is the quintessential symbol of black oppression in America." One is a symbol of hope and salvation; the other, a symbol of brutal oppression, cruelty and suffering. How do we reconcile "the essential symbol of Christianity and the quintessential emblem of black suffering"? Cone wants both blacks and whites to remember, to face this macabre spectacle and learn from it, to look and live.

Our study will use a guide from the New York Conference of the United Methodist Church Board of Church and Society along with sermons and videos from Dr. Cone and other Christian Theologians and writers.

Offered at 2 different times and ways

Dear Laity and Clergy of the Western Pennsylvania Conference,

Grace and Peace to you in this New Year! Each new year brings opportunities for God's new and next!

I invite you to one of six meetings with the Bishop taking place around the WPA Conference area. I will be meeting with Clergy and Laity to share an update on how we have been moving as a people empowered by God's Spirit. My gathering with you will include updates on vision, Conference staffing and restructuring, and the ministry and mission that has been moving since we last met at annual conference. As always, I will begin my time at each of these gatherings with scripture and a time of spiritual centering.

You are invited to be a part of whatever gathering in whatever area works best for you. I have intentionally selected these times and dates so that there are opportunities for our laity who work full time, as well as our bi-vocational pastors, to join one of the gatherings. Here are the dates and locations of each of the six gatherings:

Sunday, February 15 – 2:00-4:00 PM at Grove City Grace UMC

Sunday, February 22 – 3:00-5:00 PM at Trinity UMC Indiana

Saturday, March 14 – 3:00-5:00 PM at Edinboro UMC

Sunday, March 15 – 3:00-5:00 PM at Monroeville UMC

Monday, March 16 – 6:30-8:30 PM at Trinity UMC McMurray

Thursday, March 19 – 6:00-8:00 PM at Warren Grace UMC

Thank you in advance to those pastors and congregations who have opened their doors to host these times of sharing. Please use the registration link (below and above) to let us know which gathering you plan to attend so that we can be best prepared at each location and are able to communicate any schedule adjustments.

I look forward to being with you and celebrating how God's power is working among us, so that we might truly be God's people who Love Boldly, Serve Joyfully, and Lead Courageously.

Peace,
Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball

Albright-Deering Lectures in Methodist Studies

Tuesday, March 3, 2026

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Celebrating 70 Years of Full Clergy Rights for Women in the United Methodist Church

Marking the 70th anniversary of women's ordination in the Methodist Church, this three-part lecture series explores the past, present, and future of women's leadership in Methodist ministry. From the early pioneers who preached without permission to the complex realities faced by clergywomen today, the series traces how the Holy Spirit has moved—and continues to move—through the lives and leadership of women called to serve. Through historical analysis, theological reflection, and constructive visioning, these lectures invite the church and academy alike to consider how women's ordination has shaped Methodist identity, and how it will continue to form the church's witness in the decades ahead.

The Rev. Stephanie York Arnold, general secretary for The General Commission on the Status and Role of Women of The United Methodist Church, and the Rev. Dr. Emily Nelms Chastain, assistant professor of Christian history and Methodist studies at Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, will present the 2026 Albright-Deering Lectures.

- Lecture 1: She Preached Anyway: How Methodist Women Turned Print and Polity into Power (1919-1956)
- Lecture 2: Still Called, Still Climbing: Clergywomen Today
- Lecture 3: The Next Iteration: Envisioning Women's Leadership Together

In collaboration with and co-sponsored by the Western Pennsylvania Conference of The United Methodist Church

In partnership with the Office of Community, Opportunity, Responsibility, & Engagement & the Student Association, Inc.
