Mike Slaughter, pastor emeritus and global church ambassador for Ginghamsburg Church, served for nearly four decades as the lead pastor and chief dreamer of Ginghamsburg and the spiritual entrepreneur of ministry marketplace innovations. Mike's life-long passion to reach the lost and set the oppressed free has now made him a tireless and leading advocate for the children, women and men of Darfur, Sudan, once named by the U.N. as the worst humanitarian crisis in the world. Mike's call to afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted challenges Jesus followers to wrestle with God and their God-destinies.

Slaughter has authored 18 books and travels the country for speaking engagements. Read more about Slaughter here: http://www.mikeslaughter.com. Some members of our church have participated in group study of two of his fantastic books.

There are two worship services on Sunday, 9:00 and 10:30. Learn more about Ginghamsburg Church here: https://ginghamsburg.org/church-online/.

Tipp City is about 20 minutes from Dayton, OH. There are several hotels in the area ranging from $90 to $150 per room, which could be split between roommates.

We could pick a couple of the following attractions in and around Dayton to visit on Saturday:

- 2nd Street Market - Housed in an old, block-long railroad building, there are vendors of all sorts. Lots of fresh produce, organic cheeses and meats, fabulous bread and quite a few unique food booths.

- The Wright Cycle Company Complex - Serves to educate the public as to the Wright's many talents, as well as telling the tale of the pioneering days of powered, controlled flight.

- Antiques Village – Isle after isle of antiques of every size, shape, and style imaginable.

- Wegerzyn Gardens MetroPark - A vast array of all sorts of flowers, shrubs, plants and trees greet visitors to this park.
