COSSACK TO BE FINED FOR ILLEGAL UNIFORM

Calgary - UHL Enforcement Division has pulled out all the stops to find the player (see photo above) that was NOT wearing UHL issued Uniforms Sunday night.

Reports are that this unidentified player will be fined a Bottle of Vodka for wearing illegal Socks as seen above. Undercover investigators are searching for this player to take all measures necessary to bring him to justice, and to reenforce this type of reckless behavior and disregard for UHL rules will is not tolerated by UHL Govenors.

If you know this player, please call UHL Enforcement at 1 (800) UKE-STOP.

CADILLAC COSSACK GOES BALLISTIC TO INJURE OPPONENT

Westside Rec, AB - Late Sunday night in game five between the Fightin' Cossacks and the Cadillac Cossacks in what seemed to be a harmless check into the board, turned into a awful blood-bath.

Shortly after Fightin' Cossack Andy Josephs scored the opening goal in game two, Josephs took a wild swing of a stick to his face causing a severely cut lip and a broken front tooth. The culprit..... #44, Mark "the aggressor" Demchuk. Demchuk saw Josephs breaking in on the right wing at blazing speed when Demchuk took the law into his own hands and took him down with a violent swing to the face.

Sure this was an "apparent" accidental stick to the face by Demchuk, but UHL officials are looking into the incident so see if further disciplinary action is require.

Demchuk didn't receive a penalty on the play.

PROKOP RETURNS FROM INJURY TO RECEIVE THE PLAYER OF THE GAME

Calgary, Alberta – UHL Golden Knight player returns from an upper body injury with speed and style. Jim “run-and-gun” Prokop returned to the Golden Knights and looked like no injury took place. He was speedy down the wing, and while he didn’t score any goals for his team, he fit right back into the Roster without issue.

Team Captain Mark Ewanchyna was happy to see Jimmy return to the lineup and looks forward to his full recovery. In a statement from Prokop “I felt great out there, nobody hit me, I turned both left and right and I even came to a complete stop in under 8 feet. My injury could have been worse, but I’m glad to be back. I tell ya, being a fan in the stands watching the UHL is like watching a snails race in the dead of winter”.

JOSEPHS CAUGHT TRYING TO PAWN THE CADILLAC AWARD

San Jose, MX – UHL Female superstar Katy Josephs was seen all over Social media on Snapgrab, Instachat, and Facecrap showing off the Player of the Game award given to Cadillac players that exceeded the expectations of Captain Corey Taillon.

Josephs, last seen at St. Stephen’s Parish Hall at 2:30am Friday night, was trying to sell the impressive Award to an old woman in a walker in a handicap stall of the women’s washroom claiming the Award was actually Justin Beiber’s necklace from a concert in Cabo San Lucas Mexico in the summer of 2014.

COMMISH CONFUSED AT HOME ARENA NEW ADDITIONS

Dressing Room 4, AB – Reports are the UHL Commish was glad to be back at the home arena Westside Rec. Centre. but it didn't come without questions.

The arena was closed for a month to make some repairs, facelift and add new signage (like the one seen above) causing the UHL to relocate in April to Flames Community.

The Commish, also known as Bobyn on the ice, was a bit rattled and confused at the new signage installed in the dressing rooms siting discrimination and poor judgement.

While the UHL does not condone alcohol consumption at the public arena, it was later decided to move the apparent beverage consumption to behind the bench and parking lot where no outrageous signage is visible.

Westside staff were not available for comment.

BULYCH LIGHTS IT UP FOR GOLDEN KNIGHTS IN LOSING CAUSE

Calgary – Power centreman Greg “the Bully” Bulych scored twice to open the late game against the Kubie’s Sunday night. Bulych, known for his goal scoring, was upset at the UHL rules of no more than two goals per game per player. Because of this, team captain Ewanchyna immediately moved Bulych to play Defense to finish the game.

Bulych has now dropped to fifth place in the UHL scoring race trying to catch freight train Peter Demchuk, Avrey (Zdeno Chara) Sakundiak, and the now holy and bloody Andy Josephs .

BABICHUK CALLED UP THEN TRADED AFTER ONLY NINE MINUTES OF PLAY

The services of UHL veteran Kelly Babichuk was called upon by the Fightin' Cossacks late Sunday only to find himself traded to the opponent, the Cadillac Cossacks just moments after puck drop.

Babichuk, who was set to play in the late game, played only nine minutes of the game against the Caddies before learning of his on-ice trade to the Caddies by the Fightin'.

"I looked at our bench, then I looked at the Caddies bench noting they only had four and we had seven. I thought it would be extremely manly of me to trade Babichuk mid-shift to Taillon's team to help even out the teams" said Fightin' captain Chris Buck.

Given the unique circumstances, the UHL agreed that this would not be considered an official call-up by either team.

Injured Cossack Seeks Revenge

Calgary, AB – UHL social media is all a buzz this week as Fightin' sniper Andy Josephs was clipped by a high stick late Sunday night.

Josephs sustained a bloody horrific and non-life threatening injury from an apparent and accidental high stick from UHL veteran Mark Demchuk.

In a statement from Josephs, "I didn't see it coming! I was breaking in along the right wing and all I remember is a piece of lumber in my mouth cutting my lip and breaking a front tooth! By the time I skated off the ice, I realized I was bleeding like a stuck-pig and needed medical attention". Demchuk was seen following the incident in the dressing room giving Josephs a Vodka Shot and Ice cube to ease the pain. Demchuk later returned to the ice getting the final goal of the game in a losing cause for the Caddies.

No word yet if additional discipline by the UHL will be imposed of the no penalty call on the ice.
