Babichuk gets SUSPENDED until further Notice after numerous warning by the Commish regarding UHL Socks

Westside Recreation Centre – Dylan Babichuk of the Cabbage Rollers was notified by League Officials this morning that he must wear Official UHL equipment including socks. He rejected the Rule siting he has a constitutional right to wear his favorite socks. That wasn't a good enough answer said the jury of 10, so Babichuk was officially suspended (without pay) the morning of April 21, 2024, until the Babichuk agrees to wear the issued team socks

Babichuk, the self-proclaimed "King of the UHL", notified the Commish that if a fine, suspension, or other disciplinary action was taken against him that he would fight it in the highest Courts of Law. In a statement from Babichuk he told UHL Media "go ahead and fine me, my dad pays. Or if you add a fine to my 2024 Fees, that's OK, my dad pays. Or if you dare to garnish my wages, go right ahead, I'm on dad's payroll".

The Commish was shocked by Babichuk's lack of respect for UHL Officials was uncertain if additional discipline action would be taken.

Babichuk all smiles as he craters and gives in to UHL Officials and complied by wearing regulation UHL Socks

Westside Recreation Centre – No comment

Well, maybe one comment... Lesson learned for Babichuk who is relieved to be back playing on the UHL following an unprecedented act of rebellion.

If Babichuk didn't comply, the Playstation video game "Overwatch" would be taken away from him permanently.

UHL WHO KNEWS?

Provincial Parliament Building– Tyler Shandro, once known as the mystery UHL player, was flown in on the UHL Jet from Italy in early April to strap up the blades and play in the UHL.

Shandro, known for paying UHL Fees and not showing up, finally made an appearance in the UHL in front of well over 11 fans. Welcome back Tyler!

With zero goals in three games, 21 wipeouts, and 7 shots on net, Shandro has already made an impact for the Borscht Boilers.

Ewanchyna (4th edition) makes Surprising Appearance

Westside Rec. Centre – The chins dropped when Stephen Ewanchyna strapped on his blades on Sunday night.

Ewanchyna, the youngest of what seems to be 17 Ewanchyna's playing in the UHL, traveled in from BC on his private Moped to play in Game #2 of the season. He felt it was necessary to keep his streak alive by playing in 7 straight seasons. Great to see you Stephen!

A True Ukrainian!

April 14, 2024 - Perogy Pounder legend Mark Ewanchyna did a first in UHL history... He called off his own goal!

Yep, on April 14, 2024 at approximately 43:22 into the game, Ewanchyna took a shot past what appeared to be 9 players to hit the twine.

However, immediately following the goal, he called it off as he felt the goal hit the back of Knapik, then off the head of Tarasenko, and then off the stash of Sakundiak. UHL VHS tapes clearly show it also went off elbow of Patrician. So... I guess he was right!

UHL Considers Drug Testing following random test

UHL Commish may crack down on drinking prior to each UHL game following a random questionnaire handed out in the dressing room before game #3.

A photo of this questionnaire clearly shows this player unable to answer the question correctly.

The contract with the Westside Rec. Centre clearly says “Alcohol not permitted in the dressing rooms”. The Commish disagrees as this is “just a suggestion” and highly recommends beer consumption after all games to stay hydrated.

Wait...
Me?
Nope!

Injuries on the Rise due to Aggressive Play

World Wide Web - UHL reporters covering the games are reporting more injuries are occurring this season due to over-aggressive play. As shown to the right, Kubie Krusher Defenseman Dave Anderson screams in pain after taking a puck to the wrist. Anderson, known for his over-aggressive play, was unavailable for comment. UHL medical staff later learned of a chipped bone in his wrist.

In the same game, fans watched in fear as Alex Tarasenko went down like a bag of perogies with an undisclosed lower body injury.

The UHLPA would like to remind all players that this league is all about fun, family and friendship. Should on-going chippy play (no pun intended) continue, the UHL disciplinary division will take measures to ensure all players have fun without the need for unsportsmanlike conduct.

PUCK MISSING

Late Sunday night the UHL Bored of Guveners did an audit of UHL pucks noting that this puck is missing.

If you know the whereabouts of this puck, please return it to the Equipment Manager and no questions will be asked.

Should another puck go missing a warrant for the arrest of the culprit will be issued!
