

SOMETHING ELSE

is a band from Houston that plays a danceable brand of post-punk with melodic and charismatic vocal performances, angular guitar work and foot-tapping rhythms. Noted for their unhinged live performances, Something Else has rocked big venues, smoky dives, and energetic house shows in towns like Houston, Austin, and Denton as well as opened for touring artists like the Gotobeds (Sub Pop). Fans of Franz Ferdinand, Arctic Monkeys, and the Pixies will like Something Else.

CONTACT

somethingelsetheband.com

@somethingelsetheband

somethingelsetheband@gmail.com

music

recognitions

"Eight Houston music releases you need to hear in 2021"

--Houston Chronicle

2018 - Best of Jangle-Pop (singles)

--Jangle Pop Hub

press

"The disaffected vocals eventually open up alongside the jangle pop hooks and rhythm section, making ['Don't Want It'] one you'll probably repeat again and again."

--Houston Press

"['What's Left Behind'] shows that this band have a ready made avenue of further brilliance to travel down... let's hope they keep their scratch, edge, and spike for a few more albums yet!"

--Jangle Pop Hub

live sessions

video

music video

"Last year we noticed a new band out of Texas called Something Else, and we were amazed at how much growth we saw from their early shows to their later sets."

--Closed Captioned

"Something Else transmits guitar indie music in the best form that is known today."

--Grotesqualizer