

WILLIAM ROCHE

EDITOR

willroche@me.com

07813 036 422

Documentary

williamroche.net

Next-level cutting

Accused: Guilty or Innocent?

(4 x 60min, Brinkworth TV, A&E)

Rated the #1 Crime and Justice series on Cable TV in the United States, this highly acclaimed series follows the dramatic stories of people charged with serious crimes and facing prison. Told from the perspective of the accused, featuring access to their families, lawyers and their trials, each episode delivers an intimate and emotional journey through the criminal justice system.

Accused: Did I Do It?

(2 x 60min, Brinkworth TV, A&E)

Brand new series following the accused, this time told retrospectively with compelling down-the-lense interviews. Our characters open up about their harrowing experiences; being accused of crimes, police investigations, social impact, trial footage, and life in prison.

Banged Up Abroad

(60min, Raw TV, Nat Geo)

Follow the world's most daring and dangerous criminals, from a drug trafficking war hero, to a Latin King street boss and a feminist drug baron, as they fall spectacularly into the hands of the law, losing their freedom and learning the true cost of a life of crime along the way.

Pilgrimage

(60min, BBC2)

Celebrities take a journey of a lifetime. They all have different faiths and beliefs - will stepping in ancient footsteps on a spiritual journey broaden minds?

Valley of the Kings - The Lost Tombs

(90min, Blink, Discovery)

Feature documentary following the largest excavation in the Valley of the Kings in Egypt in a generation. On the hunt for an ancient Egyptian royal tomb, archaeologists are hoping to uncover an intact tomb that will rival the discovery of Tutankhamen's tomb nearly a century ago.

Victorian Bakers

(2 x 60min, Wall to Wall, BBC)

Observational documentary following four British bakers transported back in time to experience what baking was like in the Victorian era, and how baking became part of British culture.

Gold Rush

(7 x 60min, Raw TV, Discovery)

Epic observational documentary series following gold miners in Alaska. Batteling against extreme weather, and using extraordinary giant machines, they try to strike it rich.

Gold Rush: White Water

(3 x 60min, Raw TV, Discovery)

Edge-of-your-seat ob doc following miners who put their lives on the line as they mine for gold under the white waters of the Alaskan mountains..

Shark Academy*(60min, Double Act, Discovery)*

Renowned shark expert Dr. Riley Elliott launches a maverick new approach to finding his next crew member. Eight recruits undergo an intense six-week crash course in shark conservancy. It is the toughest job interview in the world – and the only one that bites.

All on the Line*(60min, Raw TV, Discovery)*

It's all hands-on deck as we follow brave fishing crews in Massachusetts as they search for one of the world's biggest fish. Giant Atlantic Bluefin tuna can weigh over 1,000lbs. Catching them by hand is dangerous and exhausting. The crews must put it all on the line.

Getaway Driver*(60min, October, Discovery)*

Michelle Rodriguez hosts this adrenaline fuelled Grand Theft Auto style driving competition. Drivers risk everything as they race their mean-machines through an apocalyptic compound.

Dr. Jeff Rocky Mountain Vet*(60min, Animal Planet)*

Animal Planet's No.1 show follows the legendary work of America's favourite vet, Dr Jeff Young, as he attempts to rescue and treat an extraordinary array of animals.

Homestead Rescue*(4 x 60min, Raw TV, Discovery)*

We follow our homestead experts as they travel deep into the wilderness to answer emergency calls from homesteads in distress. Can they teach these families how to defend against dangerous predators, weather, and how to produce food off-grid, before time runs out?

Outrageous Acts of Science*(60min, October Films, Doc Channel)*

A panel of experts attempt to explain the science behind extraordinary, and often dangerous, stunts and experiments posted on internet video platforms.

The Victorian Slum*(60min, Wall to Wall, BBC2)*

In this landmark living history series, a Victorian tenement in the heart of London's East End has been painstakingly brought back to life. A group of 21st century people are moving in to experience the tough living and working conditions of the Victorian poor.

How Machines Work*(60min, Windfall Films, Discovery)*

This series breaks new ground with breath-taking CGI animations that take the viewer into the heart of machines, revealing the incredible details of how they work, and how they are made.

Catastrophe: Birth of the Planet*(60min, Pioneer Productions, C4)*

Tony Robinson presents this cutting edge five-part science documentary series which reveals the incredible story of how the conditions for life on Earth were born out of huge catastrophes.

Snowstorm: Britain's Big Freeze*(60min, Pioneer Productions, C4)*

Dramatic documentary chronicling the snowstorm that hit Britain in February 2009; the worst snowstorm in 18 years. Characters retell their experiences, from distress to acts heroism.

TV Towns*(60min, Hamma & Glatma, ITV3)*

Stuart Maconie presents this innovative six-part series where he tours Britain to explore the stories behind some of the country's most-filmed locations.

William Roche - Editor

Built From Disaster

(60min, Two Four Productions, Discovery)

A look at major disasters and how engineers are learning from past failures to build ever more ambitious constructions. This episode focuses on stadiums, with incredible archive footage.

In the Balance

(8 x 30min, Sky)

A Stylish presenter-led documentary series examining religious culture in America.

Factual Entertainment

All the Gear, No Idea!

(5 x 60min, Hamma & Glatma, Discovery)

Innovative and entertaining series that ships outmoded British bikers out to Los Angeles for a motorcycle and image makeover - Californian style!

How Do They Do It?

(8 x 30min, Wag TV, Discovery)

The world's best-known and highest-rating science/engineering show. Each series lifts the lid on the modern world and tells you how it works – from space rockets and nuclear subs to light bulbs and razors. Each episode features three stories, filmed in multiple locations around the planet.

World Circuit

(30 x 30min, Sunset & Vine, Sky)

Lifestyle series following high profile motor-sports drivers, both on and off the track. With exclusive access, we find out what makes these adrenaline addicts tick?

John Fashenu's Football Challenge

(2 x 30min, Zig Zag, Bravo)

Reality sports series following ex-professional footballer John Fashenu as he attempts to defy the odds; to train an amateur team and transform them into champions.

Employment history

- 2005 - Current - BLUEBERRY AGENCY UK - Freelance Editor
- 2003 - 2005 - CONNECTIONS AGENCY UK - Freelance Editor
- 2001 - 2002 - ORTV - In-House Editor
- 1998 - 2001 - ORTV - Assistant Editor

Qualifications

- 2004 - DFG - The Grammar Of Editing Documentary
- 2003 - OC - Scriptwriting for Film & TV
- 2000 - LONDON FILM INSTITUTE - 16mm Film Course
- 1998 - CHELSEA COLLEGE OF ART - BTEC Art, Design & Photography

References

- Blueberry Agency - 020 7199 3850 - talent@blueberrycreatives.co.uk
- Xander Brinkworth - Creative Director, Brinkworth TV - xander@brinkworth.tv
- Sam Maynard - Executive Vice Presedent, Raw TV - sam@raw.co.uk

Visit my website williamroche.net to view my showreel