

WILLIAM ROCHE

EDITOR

willroche@me.com

07813 036 422

Documentary

williamroche.net

Next-level cutting

L.S. Lowry: The Unheard Tapes

(60min, Wall to Wall, BBC)

Docu-drama about one of Britain's most beloved artists, revealed as never before through unheard hidden recordings nearly a century ago. Staring Sir Ian McKellen. (Grierson Award longlist)

My Wife, My Killer & The Secret Footage

(90min, Coming Up Roses, C5)

Feature documentary about the shocking murder of successful businessman Jamie Faith, and the extraordinary web of lies and acts of betrayal which are uncovered by the police investigation.

Secrets of Flying Scotsman

(60min, Britespark Films, C4)

This two-part documentary series charts the extraordinary story of the 100-year-old steam engine, which defied the odds, broke world records, and continues to inspire people today.

Accused: Guilty or Innocent?

(6 x 60min, Brinkworth TV, A&E)

Rated the #1 Crime and Justice series on Cable TV in the United States, this highly acclaimed series follows the dramatic stories of people charged with serious crimes and facing prison.

Accused: Did I Do It?

(2 x 60min, Brinkworth TV, A&E)

Spin-off series following the accused, this time told retrospectively with compelling down-the-lense interviews. Our characters open up about their harrowing experiences.

Banged Up Abroad

(60min, Raw TV, Nat Geo)

This landmark series follows the world's most daring and dangerous criminals. In this episode, a British soldier uses his military training to build a drug trafficking business across Europe.

Pilgrimage

(60min, BBC2)

Celebrities take a journey of a lifetime. They all have different faiths and beliefs - will stepping in ancient footsteps on a spiritual journey broaden minds?

Victorian Bakers

(2 x 60min, Wall to Wall, BBC)

Observational documentary following four British bakers transported back in time to experience what baking was like in the Victorian era, and how baking became part of British culture.

Gold Rush

(7 x 60min, Raw TV, Discovery)

Ground breaking series following gold miners as they battle against the odds in extreme environments searching for life changing gold.

Valley of the Kings - The Lost Tombs*(90min, Blink, Discovery)*

Feature documentary following the largest excavation in Egypt in a generation. On the hunt for an intact tomb that will rival the discovery of Tutankhamen's tomb nearly a century ago.

Gold Rush: White Water*(3 x 60min, Raw TV, Discovery)*

Edge-of-your-seat ob doc following miners who put their lives on the line as they mine for gold under the white waters of the Alaskan mountains..

Shark Academy*(60min, Double Act, Discovery)*

Eight recruits fight it out for a place on renowned shark expert Dr. Riley Elliott's shark conservancy. It is the toughest job interview in the world – and the only one that bites.

All on the Line*(60min, Raw TV, Discovery)*

Ob doc follow fishing crews in Massachusetts as they attempt to catch by hand one of the world's biggest fish, Giant Atlantic Bluefin tuna. The crews must put it all on the line.

Getaway Driver*(60min, October, Discovery)*

Michelle Rodriguez hosts this adrenaline fuelled Grand Theft Auto style driving competition. Drivers risk everything as they race their mean-machines through an apocalyptic compound.

Dr. Jeff Rocky Mountain Vet*(60min, Animal Planet)*

Animal Planet's No.1 show follows the legendary work of America's favourite vet, Dr Jeff Young, as he attempts to rescue and treat an extraordinary array of animals.

Homestead Rescue*(4 x 60min, Raw TV, Discovery)*

We follow homestead experts as they travel deep into the wilderness to answer emergency calls from homesteads in distress. Can they teach them how to survive before it's too late.

Outrageous Acts of Science*(60min, October Films, Doc Channel)*

A panel of experts attempt to explain the science behind extraordinary, and often dangerous, stunts and experiments posted on internet video platforms.

The Victorian Slum*(60min, Wall to Wall, BBC2)*

In this landmark living history series, volunteers attempt to live in a Victorian London slum. They are pushed to their limits by tough manual labour, poverty, dirt and discomfort.

How Machines Work*(60min, Windfall Films, Discovery)*

This series breaks new ground with breath-taking CGI animations that take the viewer into the heart of machines, revealing the incredible details of how they work, and how they are made.

Catastrophe: Birth of the Planet*(60min, Pioneer Productions, C4)*

Tony Robinson presents this cutting edge five-part science documentary series which reveals the incredible story of how the conditions for life on Earth were born out of huge catastrophies.

Snowstorm: Britain's Big Freeze*(60min, Pioneer Productions, C4)*

Dramatic documentary chronicling the snowstorm that hit Britain in February 2009; the worst snowstorm in 18 years. Characters retell their experiences, from distress to acts heroism.

TV Towns*(60min, Hamma & Glatma, ITV3)*

Stuart Maconie presents this innovative six-part series where he tours Britain to explore the stories behind some of the country's most-filmed locations.

Built From Disaster*(60min, Two Four Productions, Discovery)*

A look at major disasters and how engineers are learning from past failures to build ever more ambitious constructions. This episode focuses on stadiums, with incredible archive footage.

In the Balance*(8 x 30min, Sky)*

A Stylish presenter-led documentary series examining religious culture in America.

All the Gear, No Idea!(5 x 60min, Hamma & Glatma, Discovery)

Hilarious series which ships outmoded British bikers to LA for a motorcycle and image make-over.

How Do They Do It?(8 x 30min, Wag TV, Discovery)

The world's best-known and highest-rating science/engineering show. Each series lifts the lid on the modern world and tells you how it works.

World Circuit*(30 x 30min, Sunset & Vine, Sky)*

Lifestyle series following high profile motor-sports drivers, both on and off the track. With exclusive access, we find out what makes these adrenaline addicts tick?

John Fashenu's Football Challenge*(2 x 30min, Zig Zag, Bravo)*

Reality sports series following ex-professional footballer John Fashenu as he attempts to defy the odds; to train an amateur team and transform them into champions.

Employment history

- 2005 - Current - BLUEBERRY AGENCY UK - Freelance Editor
- 2003 - 2005 - CONNECTIONS AGENCY UK - Freelance Editor
- 2001 - 2002 - ORTV - In-House Editor
- 1998 - 2001 - ORTV - Assistant Editor

Qualifications

- 2004 - DFG - The Grammar Of Editing Documentary
- 2003 - OC - Scriptwriting for Film & TV
- 2000 - LONDON FILM INSTITUTE - 16mm Film Course
- 1998 - CHELSEA COLLEGE OF ART - BTEC Art, Design & Photography

References

- Blueberry Agency - 020 7199 3850 - talent@blueberrycreatives.co.uk
- Xander Brinkworth - Creative Director, Brinkworth TV - xander@brinkworth.tv
- Sam Maynard - Executive Vice Presedent, Raw TV - sam@raw.co.uk

Visit my website williamroche.net to view my showreel