Celebrate Recovery Step #9

I will continue to make amends by staying Abstinent, helping others, and make spiritual progress in my life.

Making Amends with others is not about saying you're sorry, it's about showing you're sorry.

Five Facts About Making Amends So You Can be A Rubble – Restorer

1. You have to face the truth about the pain you caused others and desire to heal the open wounds you created by your actions
2. You have to accept the fact that you apologize with words but you make amends with your actions
3. You have to understand making amends with others is a prerequisite to worshipping God
4. You have to remember making amends is not a way for you to relieve your grief and guilt, it's a way to help others be healed
5. Your actions after your apology are proof that you're sincere about changing yourself and bringing healing to others
