

Written Recommendations From

ERNEST SICKEY

// ...I have had the pleasure of working with Tom and his firm for the past five years in many arenas advocating for Indian people. Throughout our working relationship, he has demonstrated his effectiveness in the halls of Congress while keeping the focus on the agenda of his clients. His clients become a family of people that he represents ...

... Tom brings to all of us the main ingredient in his work with the Indian people and that is trust ...

In working with Tom you will find that he will protect and guide you ... to ensure that the right decisions are made and that he will not compromise the tribe. His expertise in Washington is invaluable.

... I am proud to recommend Tom and his associates to be a friend and advocate for your people. He will stand with you and your council in support of your efforts. //

