

William C. Thomas, Board Secretary

A member of the Board since 2015, a year after he moved to Cottonwood, Bill Thomas became interested in water issues after reporting on them for an online newspaper in adjoining Elbert County. His previous public experience includes serving on the Rattlesnake Fire Board of Directors for fifteen years and actively serving on community task forces.

Recipient of both a Bachelor's and Master's Degree from the University of Colorado at Denver, he retired from teaching in the Denver Public Schools in 2012. He enjoys reading and writing.
