

Catholic Education
FOUNDATION

You can afford the education your child deserves. Find out how a CEF scholarship can make it possible.

What is Catholic Education Foundation?

Catholic Education Foundation (CEF) is a nonprofit ministry of the Archdiocese that provides scholarships to help make high-quality, faith-based education possible for families who may not otherwise be able to afford Catholic school tuition.

One of CEF's scholarship programs, the CEF Tax Credit Scholarship Program, is funded by generous private donors who believe that everyone should have access to the school of their choice. These donors receive Kansas income tax credits in exchange for their donations to CEF.

Through this program, CEF works with schools to help parents cover the financial gaps that prevent their children from accessing Catholic education. In turn, these scholarships give parents the power to decide which education model will best serve their children.

How would Catholic education benefit my child?

A CEF scholarship can make Catholic education possible for your child, opening the door to excellent, in-person learning in a supportive environment. Students are seeing life-changing outcomes:

- ▶ CEF scholarship recipients achieve a 99% graduation rate, compared to 77% of their peers in other schools.*
- ▶ A child who is black or Latino is 42% more likely to graduate from high school if he or she attends Catholic school.
- ▶ Nearly 97% of CEF graduates go on to college or career training, compared with 45% of their peers in other schools.
