Event Information

Description - Welcome to Olympia WA - conveniently set between Seattle and Portland along the shores of the Puget Sound. Olympia is the capital city of Washington State and a vibrant meeting and leisure travel destination, a haven for lovers of music, art, and outdoor activities. The 2022 WSU Master Advanced Education Conference will draw hundreds of certified WSU Master Gardeners from across the State of Washington to sharpen their education and enjoy the dynamic and beautiful setting of the coastal Olympic Peninsula.

The Conference features continuing education for certified Master Gardeners through plenary sessions, workshops and and breakouts, together with organized tours of the area focused on gardening. A marketplace for vendors and exhibitors is included, offering attendees and exhibitors opportunity to network and share information outside of scheduled sessions.

Dates - The Conference runs September 28 through October 1, 2022.

Attendees - Between 275 and 350 certified Master Gardeners are expected to attend and receive continuing education, plus over 40 instructors, presenters and other guests. The event is also open to the gardening public.

Event Schedule - the Conference kicks off Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning with pre-event tours and hands-on workshops featuring the area's special gardens, landscapes and garden-related attractions. Classes and plenary sessions are held Thursday afternoon, all day Friday and Saturday morning, with the conference closing at 12N on Saturday. Attendees will choose from over 30 Continuing Education Classes on a broad range of topics from garden mastery, sustainability, home food production and garden maintenance.

Conference Venue - all Conference sessions and celebrations will be held at the Olympia Hotel, with full conference facilities and lodging — located within a lush 12 acre site on Capitol Lake in Olympia, WA.

Master Gardeners - WSU Master Gardener volunteers are extensively trained through Washington State University on sustainable landscaping food gardening, water conservation and integrated pest management. These volunteers are respected teachers and leaders in their communities on home gardening and sustainable landscape practices. WSU Master Gardeners — over 4,000 and counting — teach best gardening practices to underserved populations, schools, community gardens, senior centers, and so many more. Last year alone, our volunteers donated more than 280,000 hours to this cause. Your support of this conference will enable the WSU Master Gardener program to grow, recruit more volunteers and expand our mission in this region.

Vendor and Exhibitor Information

Grab the opportunity to network directly with attendees and profile your products or services in your choice of prime spots in the Conference area of the Olympia Hotel where hospitality and camaraderie abound!

Marketplace - Spaces are available within the secure Marketplace located within the Conference/Meeting Space area of the Olympia Hotel where you can present your product geared toward the large and vital gardener community. Each space is 8'x5' with two (2) 8'x16" tables and table coverings provided, No poles and drapes.
