Salute to America

Members of the Hernando 10-13 along with the RMP attended a “once-in-a-generation” event on Saturday, July 4th, 2026 at the historic Sand Hill Scout Reservation located in, Brooksville. The Stage Show, Light Show and Fireworks were something to remember and left everyone speechless.

Bob Sager of the Hernando Sun wrote

“As part of Hernando County’s Salute to America 250 celebration, thousands of Floridians witnessed a patriotic display of drones and fireworks preceded by musical performances and the “Story of America.” During the day, individuals and families got to explore 85 vendors and a historical hub portraying the illustrious past of the United States. After months of advertising and planning, it’s safe to say Central Florida knew where the party was on the holiday weekend”.
