

Loving at a Distance

Binding Prayer

(Go throughout your house, sprinkling with holy water or using blessed incense. By doing this, as you say the Binding Prayer, you are cleansing your house of anything that is not of the Lord.)

Father,

to you be all glory, for you are worthy of all praise and adoration.

As I bind the works of the enemy,

I ask for the intercession of the Great Mother of God, Mary Most Holy, my Mother, and that of St Joseph, Slayer of Demons,

as well as the ministry of St Michael, and any other angels or Saints, assigned by you to my beloved and our marriage.

By the authority granted me by my beloved through the Sacramental Covenant of Matrimony,

I give permission and welcome the movement of the Holy Spirit in our household.

Spirit of God, our Helper,

come to our aid.

We rely on you and need you, O Sanctifying Spirit, to conform us to Jesus,

Through the grace of our Sacrament of Matrimony.

In Jesus name,

I bind any influence of dark forces against my beloved or our marriage.

No weapon formed against us will prosper, and every lying tongue I silence.

All manipulations of any spirit that is not of the Lord that has come upon my spouse because of generational curses, sin habits, unholy alliances or soul ties, or the machinations of curses, hexes, or spells, I sever from my beloved by the Mighty Name of Jesus.

In Jesus name,

all spirits shall flee in confusion, without the ability to communicate with other spirits,

all their evil ways overtaking them, they suffering for all eternity from that which they placed upon or planned to place upon,

my beloved or our marriage.

The Word of God proclaims that every knee shall bow to the name of Jesus.

I enforce that Word, now, for the sake of my beloved.

Behold and bend to Jesus, our crucified Lord.

Amen