

MAVI/DaSilva Civil&...

AEROBANK – MIAMI, Marco B...

I trust you have substantial evidence to support such allegations, as they are currently unsupported by facts and appear to be a deliberate attempt to manipulate the situation in your favor. It is clear that these statements were made in an attempt to deflect accountability, and I assure you that such attempts will not absolve you of liability. These actions are being taken seriously, and the legal process will proceed with full force.

For years, you may have believed that American laws are weak or that you could avoid accountability. However, I assure you that this case will proceed lawfully and vigorously, and your actions will not go unchecked. In nine days, should we not receive an arrangement for the immediate refund of the $700,000 owed to Mr. Da Silva, the necessary legal action will be initiated in federal court.

I trust this message serves as clear notice of the legal course of action that is set to unfold unless you choose to resolve this matter promptly.

Wishing you a very nice weekend under the continued protection of your freedom, for now.

Sincerely,

18:19

Message

