PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE
AMENDED COMPLAINT DUE TO INADVERTENT
FILING DEFECT

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, Rogerio Scotton, appearing pro se and as founder of Legal Help 4 You LLC, respectfully requesting leave of this Honorable Court to file an amended complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2), and states as follows:

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER AND PERSONAL SAFETY PROVISIONS

On August 5, 2025, Plaintiff filed the initial Complaint for Violations of International Human Rights and Petition for Declaratory Relief.

Due to an inadvertent technical error during the final assembly and upload of the PDF document, pages 7 through 21 were unintentionally omitted from the filed version of the Complaint.

This omission was not intentional and was only discovered after final submission and docketing.

The omitted pages contain critical legal claims, factual allegations, and statutory foundations that are essential for the full and fair presentation of Plaintiff's case.

Plaintiff now seeks leave to file a corrected, complete version of the complaint, attached hereto as Exhibit A, to replace the previously filed incomplete version.

This request is made in good faith and will not cause any undue delay or prejudice, as service has not yet been completed or answered by the Defendant.

Courts favor amendments in the early stages of litigation where justice so requires.

See Foman v. Davis, 371 U.S. 178 (1962); Dussouy v. Gulf Coast Inv. Corp., 660 F.2d 594 (5th Cir. 1981).

MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER AND PERSONAL SAFETY PROVISIONS

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court:

- a) Grant leave to file an amended complaint curing the inadvertent omission of pages 7 through 21;
- b) Direct the Clerk to replace the original complaint with the corrected and complete version attached as Exhibit A;
- c) And grant such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
