Bowker Laundry Room Flooring- Phase 1 New Layout

Bowker Laundry Room Revamp
The Bowker Laundry Room project involved a complete overhaul of a small basement area housing stacked washer and dryer units. A new wall configuration, along with updated flooring and wall color, transformed the space. The design features entirely new furniture, fixtures, and equipment (FF&E), resulting in a stylish and functional laundry environment.

Bowker Family Room Transformation
The Bowker Family Room project transformed a dated playroom into a sophisticated yet cozy space for both parents and growing children. Utilizing the existing wall color and a set of comfortable blue chairs as a foundation, the design incorporates new furnishings and a dynamic rug to create an inviting atmosphere that balances style and functionality. The result is a warm, elevated environment perfect for family gatherings and relaxation.

Forster Home Project

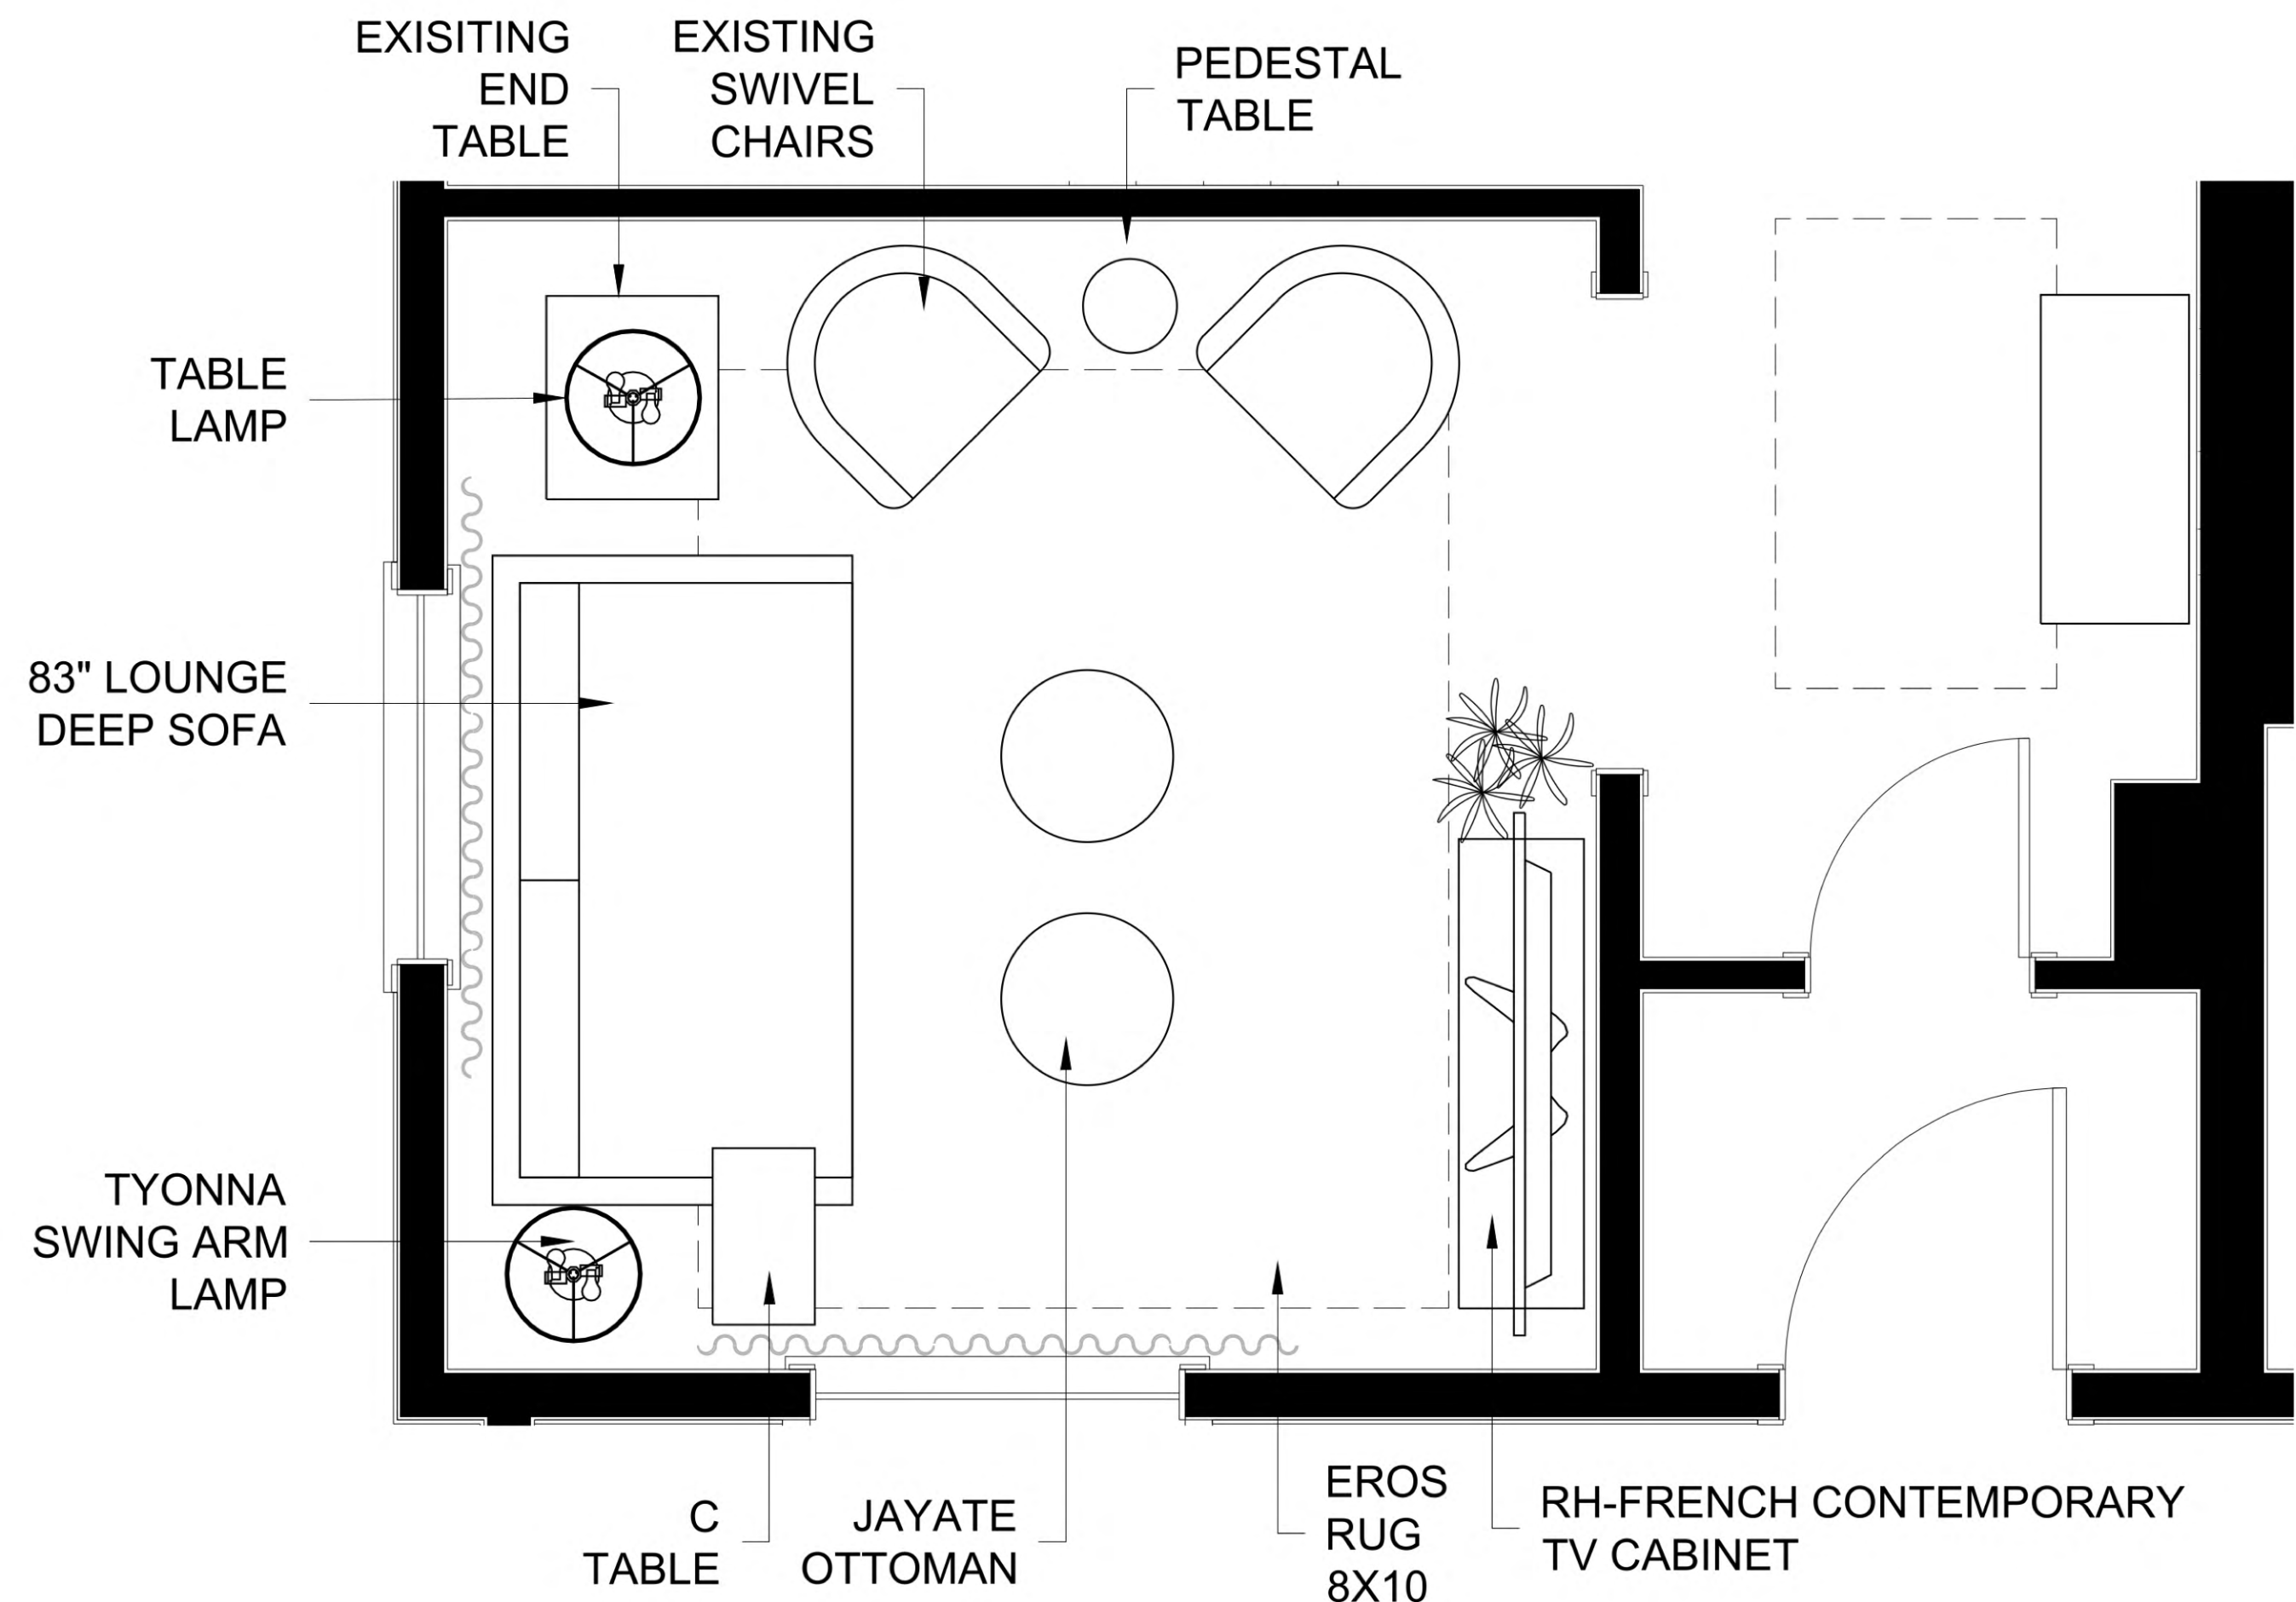

The Forster home project features a beautifully renovated residence in Chicago, complete with all new finishes and a modern kitchen. Tasked with optimizing the open floor plan of this long, narrow home, I focused on creating functional layouts that accommodate the unique challenge of a fireplace positioned in an unconventional location. I provided three distinct layout options, each utilizing different types of furniture to harmonize the spaces and enhance flow. These designs aim to create inviting areas for both relaxation and socializing, ensuring that the home's layout feels cohesive and welcoming while maximizing the potential of the open floor plan.

De Los Reyes Family Room Final Revision
This project focuses on optimizing a small family room predominantly used by the husband, emphasizing comfort and functionality. Two layout options feature either an 83" or 93" CB Deep Lounge sofa, ensuring ample seating while accommodating a specified TV size. Key design elements include a RH French Contemporary TV console, a CB2 Eros area rug with warm blue tones, and a mix of reused and new end tables. Versatile coffee table options are provided, along with layered lighting solutions to enhance the room's ambiance. The addition of Kilim pillows from Surya adds a stylish finishing touch.

Details:
Bold geometry, natural materials. For our Esphera round table lamp, a terracotta sphere finished in dark grey provides the perfect counterpart to a bright white cylindrical jute shade. The finely finished drum filters light beautifully and contrasts intriguingly with the textured base. A Crate and Barrel exclusive, the grey lamp brings welcome illumination and modern organic style to a side table, nightstand or desk.

Option A:
In this layout, larger furniture pieces flank the fireplace, complemented by a large low coffee table that encourages easy flow into the room. The south wall features bookshelves that not only serve as a focal point but also provide essential storage. A small secretary desk on the north wall enhances functionality, while strategically placed large faux plants offer privacy without the upkeep.

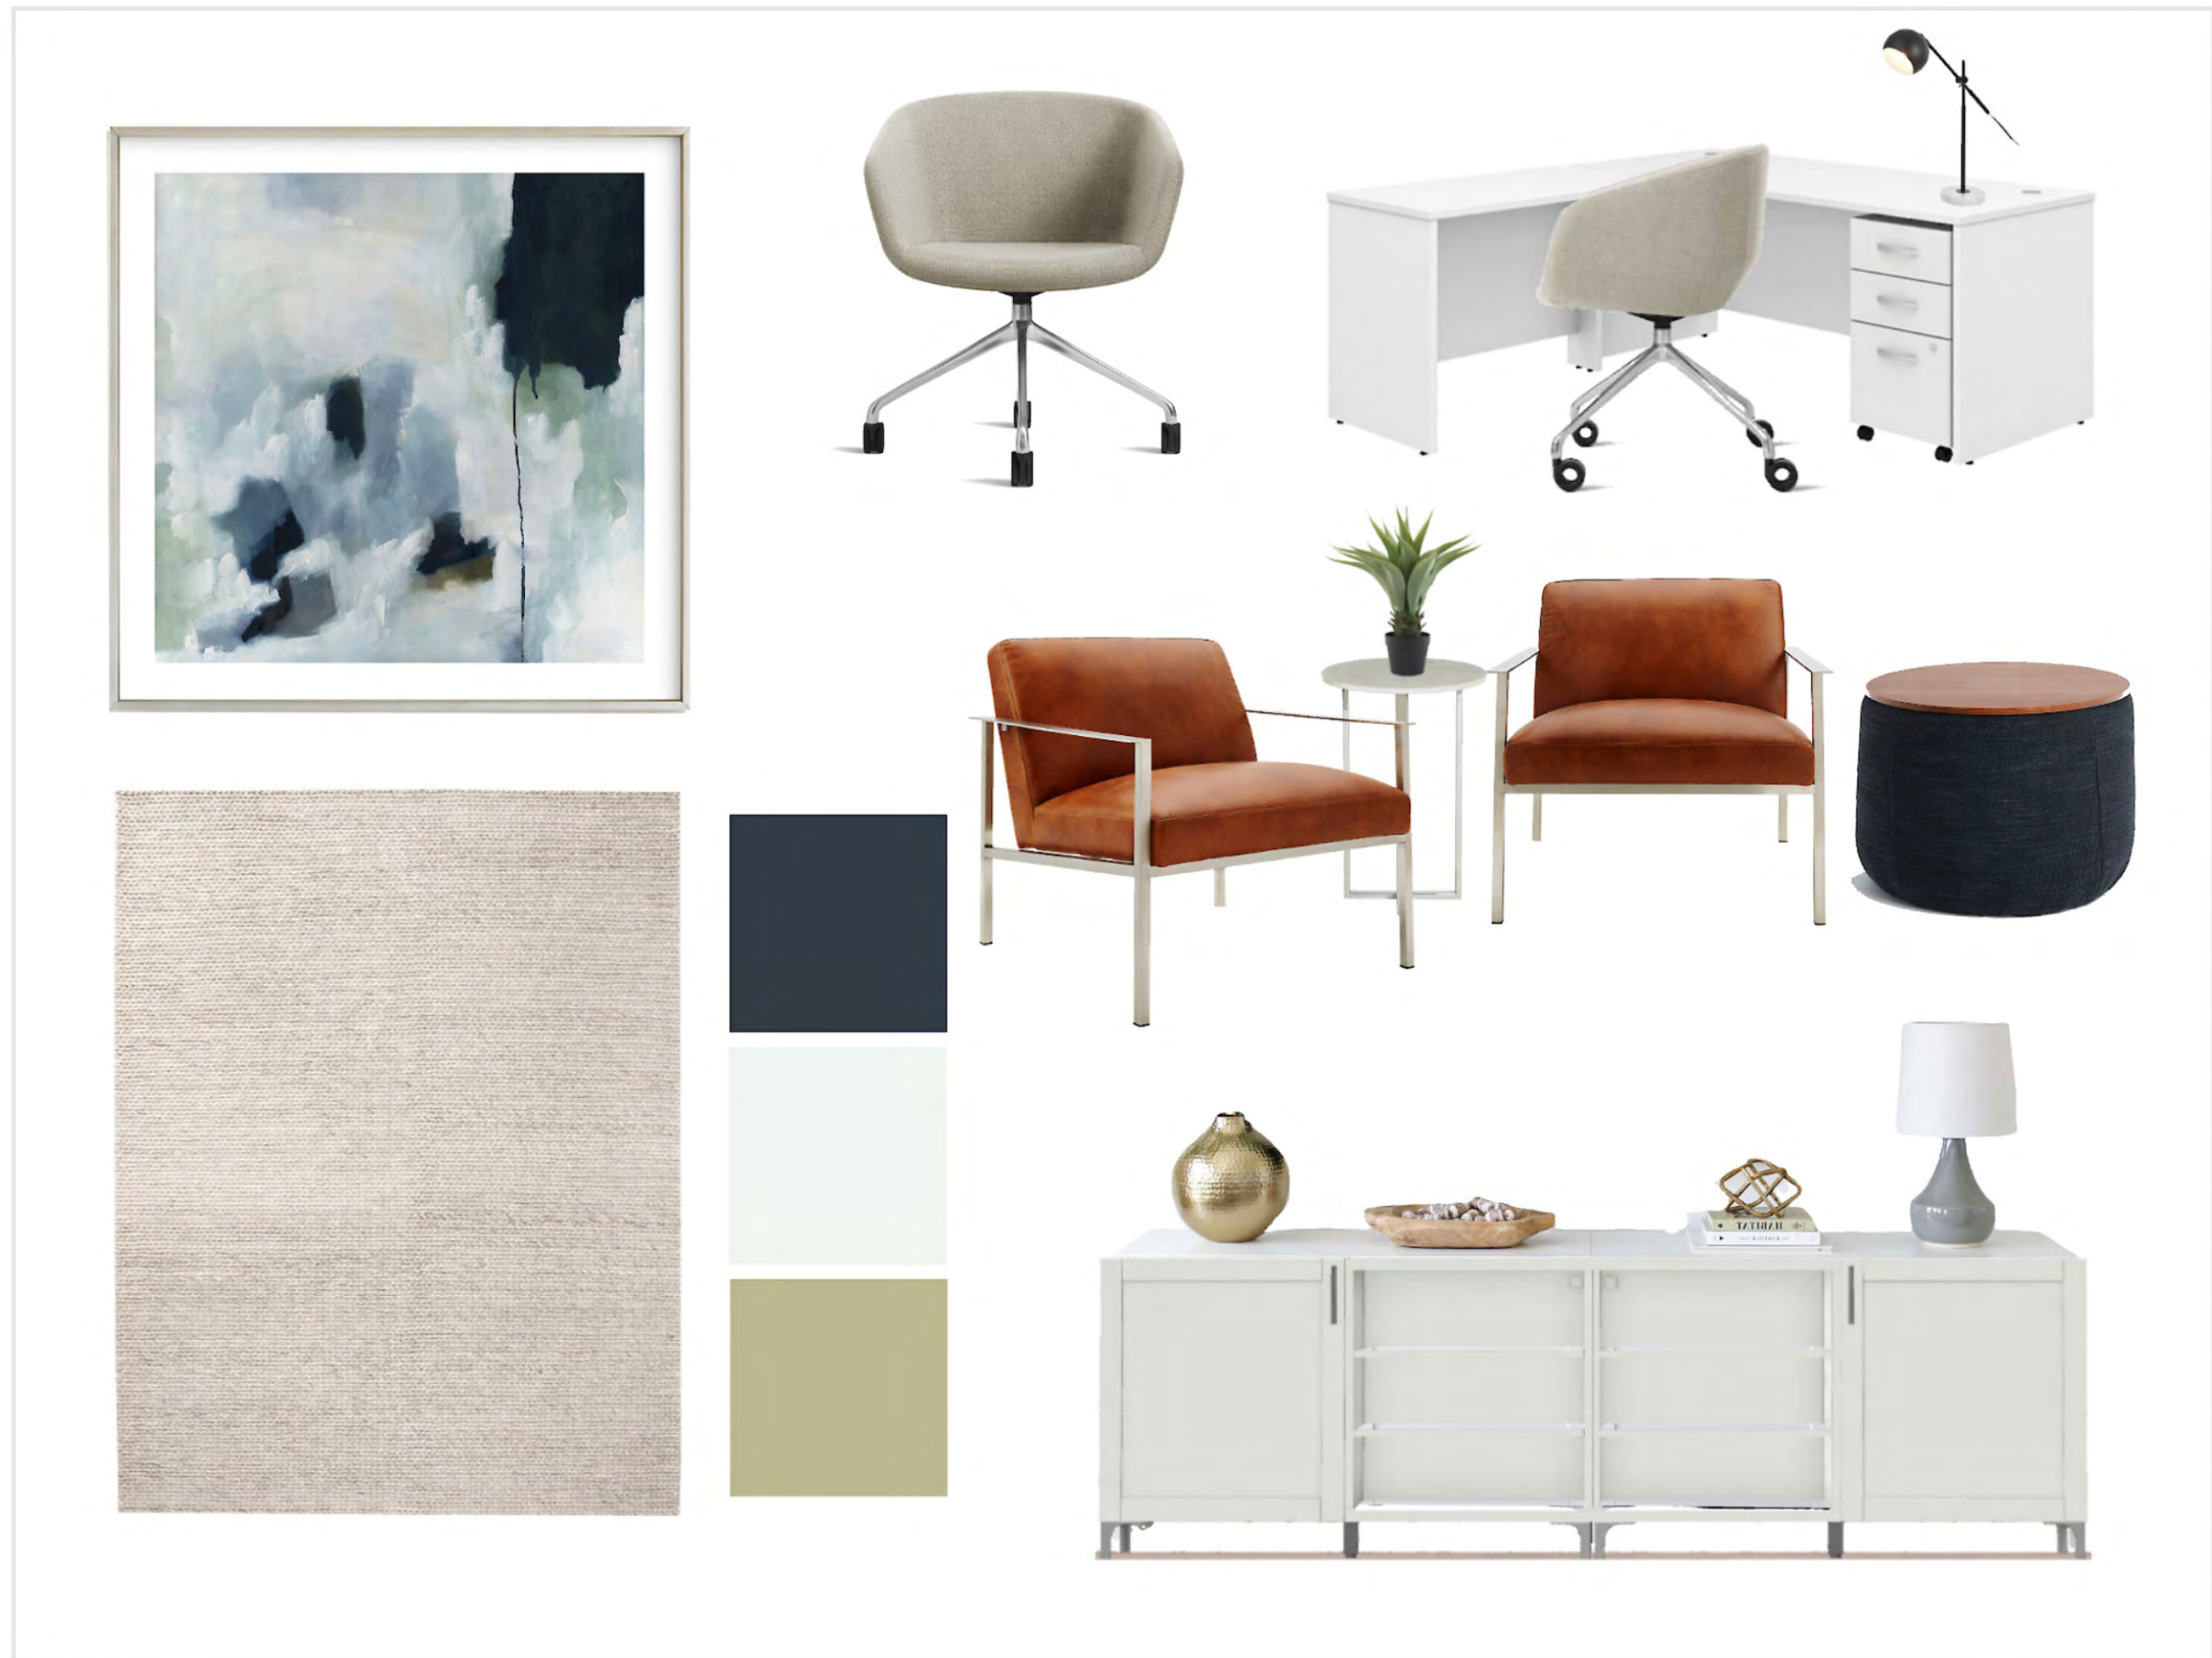

Option B:
This configuration positions a low long sofa facing the fireplace, with leather chairs on either side and a round coffee table for a cozy, intimate feel. The south wall showcases bookshelves flanking a significant piece of art, creating a striking focal point. A small secretary desk between the windows on the north wall adds versatility, and faux plants can be used to enhance privacy seamlessly.

Option C:
Similar to Option 1, this layout features larger furniture pieces around the fireplace with a low coffee table, promoting a welcoming atmosphere. The focal point on the south wall consists of bookshelves that provide storage, while a small secretary desk between the bookshelves adds functionality. SHANA KELLEY NU OFFICE
DIMENSIONS ARE APPROXIMATE

The Shana Kelley Office project was a fast-paced endeavor focused on sourcing in-stock items to create a refined and minimal workspace that aligned with her aesthetic preferences. Key pieces such as a rug, desk, bookcase (with or without doors), midnight blue ottoman, and wall art were selected for their availability and ability to ship quickly. The bookcase, a simple yet functional piece from Ikea, was chosen to save on costs without compromising style, with assembly included in the approximate pricing. While the desk chair is backordered but its unique design may justify the wait, as similar alternatives are limited.

P: 773-645-9300

Rug, Desk, Bookcase (with or without doors), Ottoman (in midnight blue) and Wall Art are in stock (as of 1/27) and ready to ship.

Bookcase is Ikea (which they do well) and I think saving a few dollars here maybe be a good idea as it a pretty simple piece of furniture. I have a handyman that I can use to put together, which I included in approx. pricing.

Desk Chair is backordered (5/1) . Perhaps we could wait for chair, I looked for others similar but there is not much like it.

Side Table is out of stock and may be discontinued, however after measuring I think a slightly larger and rectangular one may be a better fit for that space so I will look for one with that aesthetic and this is in stock.

Let me know which I items I can go ahead purchase and organize delivery. I will send new Side Table asap.

QAMAR GROUP HQ

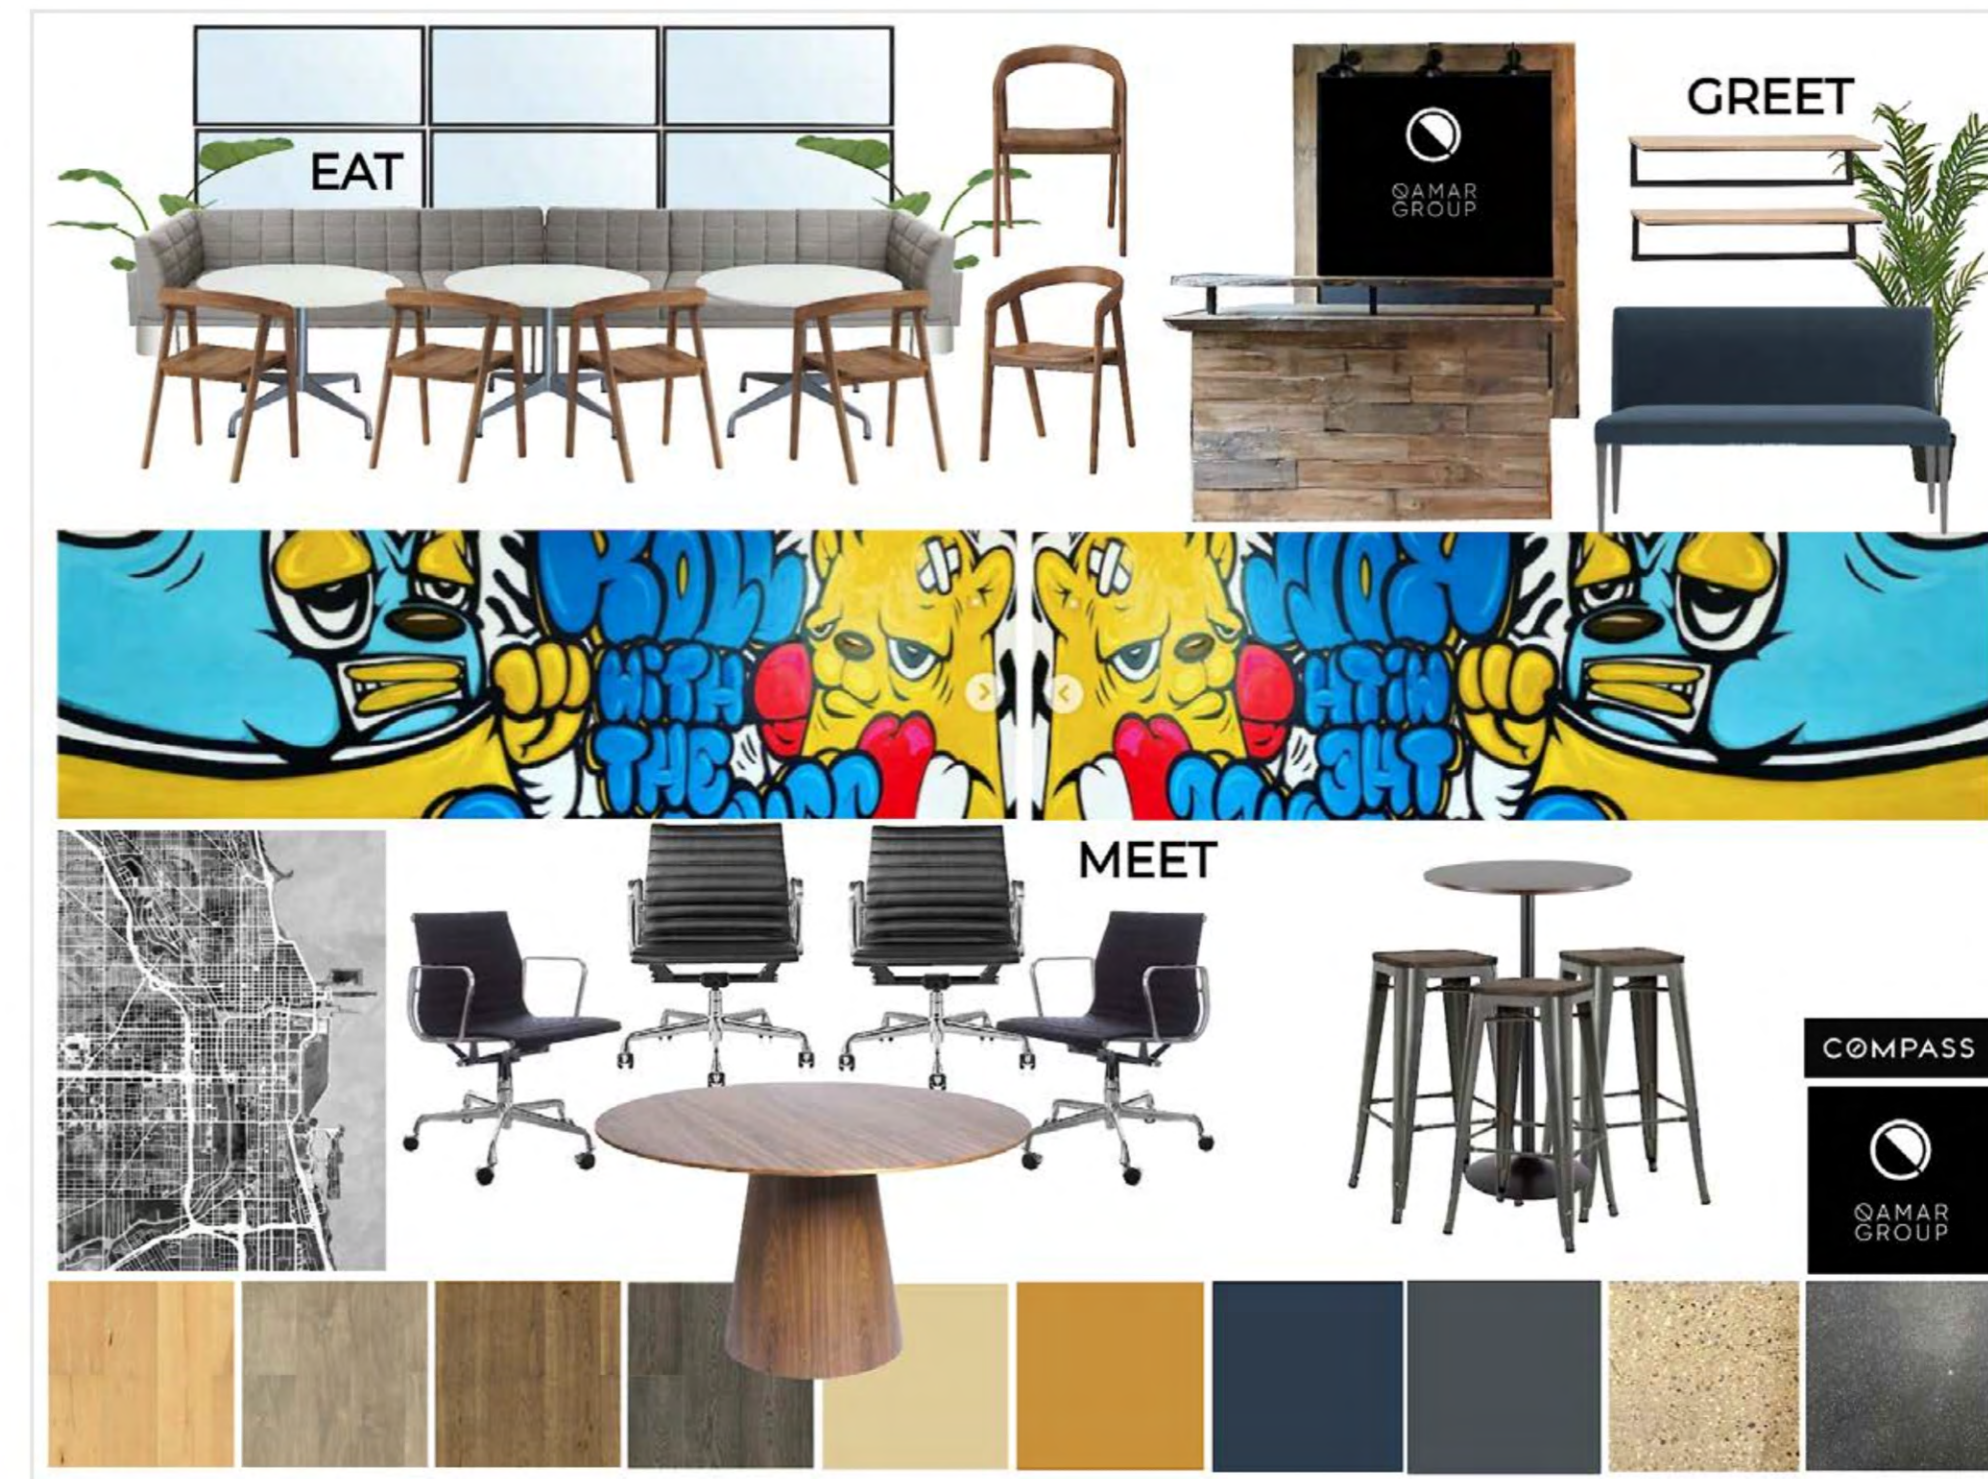

P: 773-645-9300

The Qamar Group headquarters project transformed a former local gym into a vibrant and functional office space for realtors in Evanston, Illinois. The design embraced the building's existing features, including updated kitchen and dining areas, exposed brick walls, recycled flooring, and large picture windows that overlook a busy street, creating an inviting atmosphere. The front area was thoughtfully designed to serve multiple purposes—welcoming prospective clients, providing a space for meetings, dining, and casual interactions. This multifunctional layout is reflected in the overall floor plan, ensuring a seamless flow between areas. Carefully selected fixtures, finishes, and furnishings enhance the aesthetic while promoting a warm, collaborative environment that embodies the spirit of the Qamar Group.

Pot at first attempted knitting the fiberglass and then turned to wrapping the epoxy-dipped fiberglass around an inflatable mold. Once the mold was popped, the wonderful fiberglass globe remained. The exposed bulb in the center creates an allover glow when lit. Moooi is now using a product called the Button that is on the Random II Light and uses NFC-technology to identify the authentic Moooi model.

Details:

This round-end table gives you multiple platforms for storage and display. The base and tray-style top are crafted from powder-coated steel, while the lower shelf is made from engineered wood. We love that the tabletop is removable, so you can easily transport daily essentials from room to room. Keep a stack of books underneath, so they're at the ready whenever you need them. With a diameter measuring approximately 17.1", this table has a small footprint that fits nicely beside a living room sofa, in your bedroom, or an armchair in your den.

Features

Elegance goes an extra mile: Simplicity doesn't mean scrimping on style. A round shape and clean lines nail the elegant look. Did we mention the round tray on top?

Movable tray, flexible use: No need to make separate runs to grab the popcorn, chips, and drinks for a movie night. Prepare all of them at once with the removable tray of this table, and enjoy the movie time without interruption

Intrinsic strength: Think a lightweight table can't be strong? Think again! With sturdy steel and quality particleboard, keeping everything you want to keep close at hand

Assembly done in minutes: We know that assembling furniture isn't a popular pastime. That's why this side table comes with numbered parts and clear instructions, so you can finish the assembly and get back to doing your favorite thing quickly

Balance achieved: Just like us, a table also needs balance. Thanks to the equipped adjustable feet, this side table can always stay stable, well-placed, and at peace with the floor without scratching it
