OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

He said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." - Lk 23:42-43

Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Community Mission Statement

We, the people of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Community, believe we are called by God to live our faith and to bring others to Christ by our words and actions.

Father Jerome's Message ... The True King (Luke 23:35-43)

In the narrative of Jesus' temptations in the desert, we are told that the devil "departed from him until an opportune time"

(Lk 4:13). One of the crucial occasions wherein the tempter revisits Jesus, in far more disguised and subtler form, is while he is on the cross: the temptation comes in and through the voice of the crowd around him – the people, the soldiers, and even one of the criminals crucified with him – who jeer him and ask him to prove himself as the King by coming down from the cross. This temptation is not different from that in the desert where the tempter, far more directly, asked him to jump off the pinnacle of the Jerusalem Temple to prove himself to be the Son of God. Jesus refused then; he refuses now as well. For, his kingdom is not one of grandiose spectacles at the service of oneself, nor is his kingdom to prove anything before anyone: His Kingship, and thereby his Kingdom, is all about making oneself vulnerable and powerless for the sake of love, a kenosis (self-emptying) unto death in order to give life to others (cf. Phil 2:5-11). Therefore, in refusing to throw himself down and thereby save him, Jesus proves to be the true King.

Thought of the Week: "One of the greatest mistakes is to think that contentment comes from something outside us rather than from a quality soul." (Fulton Sheen)

Question of the Week: How are you tempted to "save yourself"? How do you resist?

Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) is a 2013 apostolic exhortation by Pope Francis "On the proclamation of the Gospel in today's world."

CHAPTER ONE: THE CHURCH'S MISSIONARY TRANSFORMATION

IV. A mission embodied within human limits

42. All of this has great relevance for the preaching of the Gospel, if we are really concerned to make its beauty more clearly recognized and accepted by all. Of course, we will never be able to make the Church's teachings easily understood or readily appreciated by everyone. Faith always remains something of a cross; it retains a certain obscurity which does not detract from the firmness of its assent. Some things are understood and appreciated only from the standpoint of this assent, which is a sister to love, beyond the range of clear reasons and arguments. We need to remember that all religious teaching ultimately has to be reflected in the teacher's way of life, which awakens the assent of the heart by its nearness, love and witness.

Thanksgiving Rosary

O God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry. When I have work, help me to remember the jobless. When I have a home, help me to remember those who have no home at all. When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer. And remembering, help me to destroy my complacency, bestir my compassion, and be concerned enough to help, by word and deed, those who cry out for what we take for granted. Amen - Samuel F. Pugh

The Family of Faith program is off to a great start this year. Pictured above are children and youth leaders (who model leadership for children) after enjoying God's creation, through a nature hike, on a beautiful fall day in October. The Family of Faith program is designed for K-5th grade students, along with their parents. Children learn the joys of following Jesus while their parents participate in adult faith study during the multi-generational program. Family of Faith meets after the 9:00 am Mass on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month at Our Lady of the Lake.
