2nd Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come." - Jn 2:4

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Community Mission Statement

We, the people of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Community, believe we are called by God to live our faith and to bring others to Christ by our words and actions.

Father Jerome's Message ... The First Signs of the Kingdom of God (John 2:1-11)

Jesus walks into the marriage. Jesus is present in your marriage. He is not just a passive onlooker but a creative contributor who supplies everything that is needed. He invisibly takes care of what could be lacking or missing and provides everything to keep up your marriage. Do you recognize Jesus' role in your married life? How and in what way?

It is not only Jesus. Mary, our Heavenly Mother is also present in your marriage. It was Mother Mary recognizing the need of the household even before the bridegroom knows about it. Mother Mary is very keen to save your marriage and she always pleads to her Son to save your marriage. She even supplies the materials needed. She knew what it meant to save a marriage. Her marriage was saved by God through the Angel Gabriel who convinced Joseph in his dream. God saved Mother Mary's marriage and she now saves your marriage. Do you recognize Mother Mary's role in your married life? How and in what way?

Jesus' presence at a wedding at Cana and the miracle of turning water into wine was the first sign of the Kingdom of God.

Thought of the Week: "If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other." (Mother Teresa)

Question of the Week: How should you surrender your marriage to Jesus and Mary?

Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) is a 2013 apostolic exhortation by Pope Francis
"On the proclamation of the Gospel in today's world."

1. A joy ever new, a joy which is shared

2. The great danger in today's world, pervaded as it is by consumerism, is the desolation and anguish born of a complacent yet covetous heart, the feverish pursuit of frivolous pleasures, and a blunted conscience. Whenever our interior life becomes caught up in its own interests and concerns, there is no longer room for others, no place for the poor. God's voice is no longer heard, the quiet joy of his love is no longer felt, and the desire to do good fades. This is a very real danger for believers too. Many fall prey to it, and end up resentful, angry and listless. That is no way to live a dignified and fulfilled life; it is not God's will for us, nor is it the life in the Spirit which has its source in the heart of the risen Christ.

Meet Sister Roselyn, Heil, FSPA, the newest member of our staff...

As I settle into my new home here in Ashland, WI, I am in awe of the beautiful open welcome. Thank you. It is good to be back and walk the halls of St. Agnes, I mean Our Lady of the Lake School and Church. I was here back in 1975 for my student teaching in the middle grades. I get ahead of myself.

I grew up on a farm south of Marathon City, WI, setting my roots deep into the land, alongside my Dad, feeding cows and gathering from Earth her gifts of food and medicine. Mom taught us the gifts of herbs and flowers. I learned a diversity of ways of doing things from my eight sisters and three brothers, as well as the peace and energy which comes through compromise. And yes, that included what Jesus taught us in the power of forgiveness to ourselves and others. These discoveries in life all began with pushing my twin sister, Carolyn, into this world on June 20, 1949.

My family was taught by the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, (FSPA) from La Crosse, WI. Inspired by the FSPA's, Carolyn and I joined them after high school and made first vows in 1970. Working in a parish in Milwaukee, as the Liturgy Director, inspired me to seek my Masters in Culture and Creation-Centered Spirituality. It was the opportunity to discover the language of an ever expanding experience of God with us, through us and all around us. This learning experience gave me the framework and space to delve into my indigenous roots including the gift of storytelling. It also opened me to the opportunities to discover the journey into God's cathedrals, working as a National Park Ranger Naturalist in the parks around the country. Naturalist John Muir, 1838-1914, gave me the acceptable language in a public forum to share how everything is connected to everything in One Body (of Christ).

Aware of the hurting of people around me, I embarked on the chaplaincy journey bringing me back to Wisconsin and my FSPA roots. I worked at Marywood Spirituality Center in Woodruff, WI and Lac du Flambeau Indian Reservation. Most recently this took me to Bell Tower Assisted Living as chaplain. All these diverse opportunities continually prepare me for the next step of my journey of life which brings me back to Ashland and Odanah. I am excited about the new possibilities and discoveries with you. Thank you for your gentle and tender welcoming along with continual prayers for my family as our mother and sister journeyed into eternal life recently.

Sister Roselyn

DIOCESE OF SUPERIOR

The Magi made their annual trek to St. Peter Church, Dauby, on Epiphany Sunday, January 2. In royal robes, including masks this year, they brought, in procession, the gifts at offertory to the altar, leading the choir and congregation in the singing of "We Three Kings of Orient Are," with the chimes of the organ.

This presentation continues a tradition started in the Early 1990's. In the photo, Deacon John and Father Jerome join the Wise Men--Paul Hnath, John Budiash, and Tom Stipetich.
