LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To:

Those who paid more than $ 0 in federal taxes,

The unemployed and underemployed who need financial help because of the pandemic,

Persons and families that have lost health insurance or have a pre-existing disease, e.g. diabetes, high blood pressure, asthma, or COVID,

All that have lost someone to, or are recovering from, or caregiving because of SARS-CoV- $\alpha$  (COVID),

Health care workers who who must reuse equipment like masks while they provide care to us, family, and friends,

Past voters purged from voting rolls,

Anyone required to work and be exposed to community spread of COVID,

Individuals and groups that face inequity and discrimination (e.g. from race, gender, age, disabilities, etc.),

All that know gun violence is daily killing, injuring and instilling fear in children,

Those that recognize that scientists know more about disease, climate, and environment than politicians,

Military members and their families, past and present, who believe service is honorable (e.g. John McCain),

The public who read and watch news (like this paper) and know the evidence shows Russia interfered in our 2016 election and is actively doing so in 2020,

Those whose beliefs demand that parents and children not be forced apart, women not be sterilized without their consent, or Dreamers (almost all are health care workers) not be deported.

I ask you to please join me as patriots. Speak up to family and friends.

Demonstrate. Vote. Campaign, talk write and donate to your representatives (local to national). Pray and be kind.

As a lifelong county resident whose parents instilled in me to work hard and to speak-up. I have weighed the evidence and endorse Joe Biden and Kamala Harris for the 2020 Presidential ticket.
