SPECIAL DAY ACTIVITIES

zero shadow day

A zero shadow day is when the Sun does not cast a shadow on an object at solar noon, when the sun will be exactly at the zenith position. Our children were surprised to check how the shadow of an object would really appear on No Shadow Day.

Notable Activities:

Indoor Strategy Game

Students in Grade 5 enjoyed playing Pallanguzhi, an indoor game. It is a strategic game with skilful moves and memory about the position and number of coins kept in the opponent's pit.

It enhances coordination, memory, observation, and motor skills and indirectly delivers an excellent message for life: "Sharing is caring".

Indoor gardening activity

Students of Grade 4 B started designing their own indoor class garden. Indoor gardening boosts creativity, productivity and focus; it also promotes recovery. Many studies have shown that adding greenery to spaces where children spend lots of time can also provide a Sense of accomplishment.

Mr Sundar Pichai's Impact

Google Mr Sundar Pichai

Communication which we use in many forms today, has become indispensable in our daily life. The Internet is the science-based technology that has shrunk the world and brought it into our hands. Considered a free repository, Wikipedia, home page, blog etc., are used by a large number of people.

Also, they are unique in spreading various information to the world in a few minutes. Humanity is getting faster means of communication.

The third-generation frequency has given the facility for face-to-face communication. Don't be surprised if the next waves stop the person in person. Born in Madurai, Tamil Nadu, Mr Sundar Pichai joined Google in 2004 after graduating from IIT Kharagpur with a Bachelor's degree and Master's in Business Management in the US.

Working in various departments of Google, he rose through his management skills and rose to become the CEO of the company that controls the world today. These photos we see are proof of how much impact it has had on our children, who listened to his biography with interest.

Achievement in Sports

Football is God's gift to humanity. It is not just a game; only the strongest will thrive in it. Our young Grade VIII Boys Football Team has proved it by positioning in the Pious Trophy Football tournament.
