Principal's Note

"Education is the passport to the future, for tomorrow belongs to those who prepare for it today".

I feel elated to mention that our school is scaling new heights with the sign of progressive and quality education. With team of dedicated teachers, we always aim to create an environment where students eagerly look forward to come to school.

This newsletter is a platform that reflects vibrant talents of our future ready children.

My Heartiest Accolade

My heartiest accolade goes to all my wonderful students who have made this newsletter more meaningful by contributing effectively and making it to the mark.

A

"Education is the key that unlocks the golden door to freedom."

B

"Education's purpose is to replace an empty mind with an open one."

"Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself."

Parenting Tips for First-Time School Going Children from Our School's Kindergarten Specialist.

Our Kindergarten specialist offers valuable advice for parents to help their children transition smoothly into their first school experience, ensuring a positive start to their educational journey.

Slinky Day: A Springy Adventure at SNVV school

Our school grounds transformed into a slinky wonderland on Slinky Day.

Our Grade 6 students excitedly unpacked their colorful spring toys, their eyes sparkled with anticipation.

Laughter echoed through the air as students experimented with the slinky's unique properties, creating waves, walking down stairs, and even making it dance.

The day was filled with slinky-themed games, from races to creative challenges, fostering teamwork and imagination.

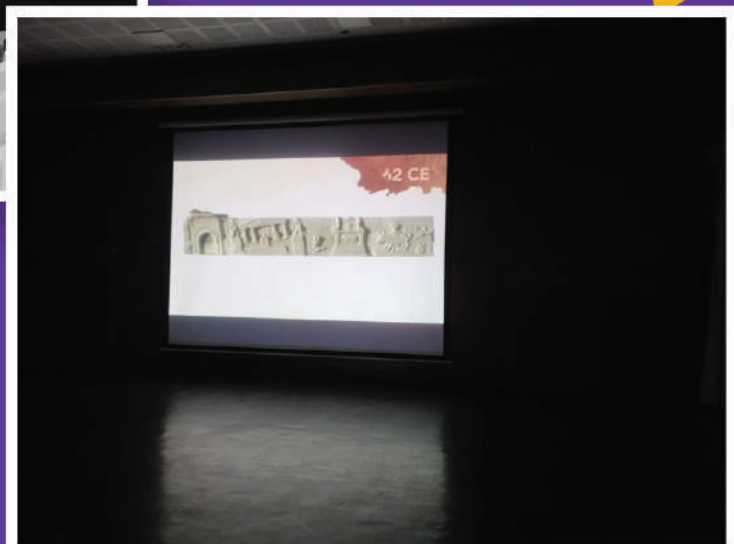

Grade 4 Students Immersed in the Ancient World with 'History of Pompeii' Film Screening

Our school recently organized a Movie of the Month event for Grade 4 students, featuring the captivating film "History of Pompeii." Our students were transported back in time to the ancient Roman city, witnessing its grandeur and ultimately its tragic downfall.

Through stunning visuals and gripping storytelling, the movie provided a unique glimpse into the lives of Pompeii's inhabitants and the devastating eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

Our students were enthralled by the historical accuracy and dramatic portrayal of the events, leaving a lasting impression and sparking their curiosity about ancient civilizations.

Revitalizing Tradition: Tamil Folklores in the Digital Age - A Seminar by Nownika

Nownika Our Grade 10 student, recently delivered a captivating seminar on the intriguing topic of Tamil Folklores in the Digital Age. Her presentation delved into the rich tapestry of Tamil folklores and explored how these ancient stories are being preserved and adapted in the modern world.

Nownika highlighted the significance of digital platforms in revitalizing traditional storytelling and connecting younger generations with their cultural heritage. Her insightful analysis and passionate delivery left a lasting impression on the audience, inspiring them to appreciate and embrace the enduring power of Tamil folklores in the digital age.

A Tribute to Our Guides: Unforgettable Teachers' Day Moments

Our school students went all out to make Teachers' Day a truly memorable occasion. With hearts full of gratitude and creativity, they crafted a day filled with heartfelt expressions and thoughtful gestures.

From personalized gifts and heartfelt messages to entertaining performances and heartwarming surprises, the students spared no effort to make their teachers feel appreciated and loved. The atmosphere was electric with joy and camaraderie as the teachers were showered with affection and admiration.

It was a day that will forever be cherished by both students and teachers alike, a testament to the special bond that connects them.

Little Seniors Shine in the Potato Decorating Competition!

Our Little Seniors took part in a delightful Potato Decorating Competition, and it was truly magical! With just a potato and their boundless imagination, they crafted their favourite characters, turning simple spuds into vibrant works of art.

This hands-on activity not only unleashed their creativity but also filled the room with joy. We're incredibly proud of their artistic achievements.

Bhakti and Bliss: A Joyous Krishna Janmashtami Celebration in Kindergarten

What a wonderful day with Grandparents! We were excited to welcome grandparents who joined in the fun with their little ones on day of Krishna Janmashtami. The day was filled with joy as the grandparents and kids participated in exciting activities like ramp walks, pot smashing and completing fun tasks.

The highlight of the celebration was the lively dance performances by our talented children, who truly stole the show! It was a memorable day of laughter, learning, and loving moments with family and friends.

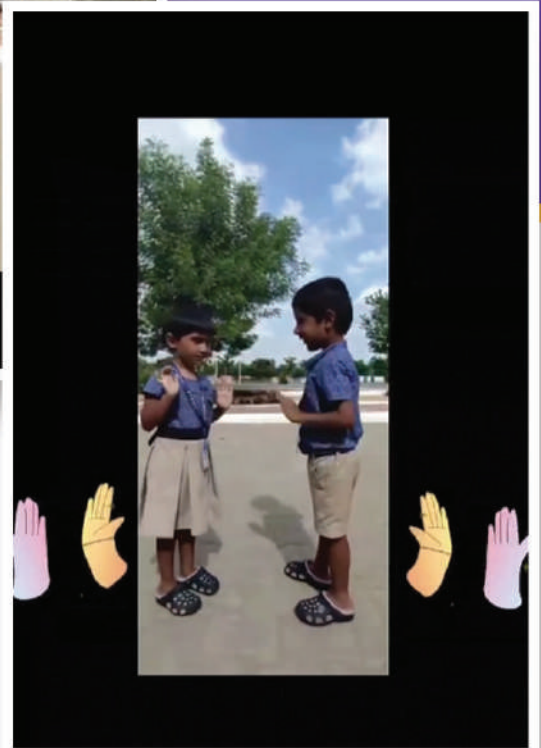

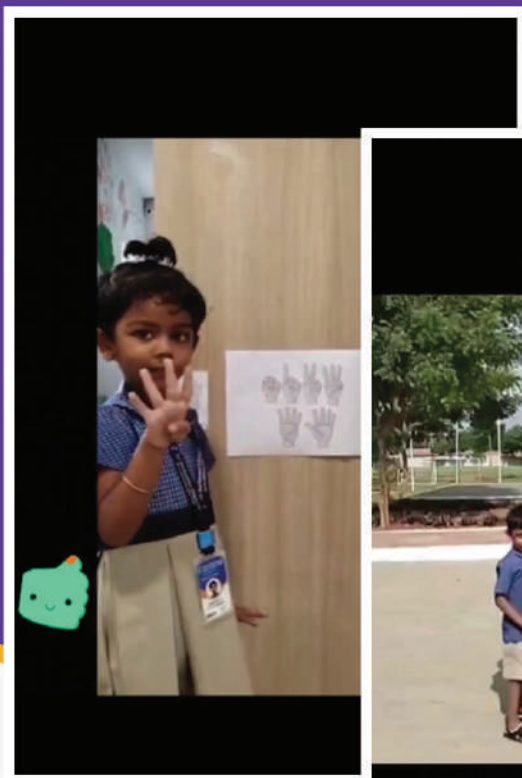

Hand Gestures in Action: Little Juniors Explore a New Language!

Our Little Juniors had a fantastic time with learning to communicate using hand gestures. It was wonderful to see them express themselves and understand each other in new, creative ways.

This activity not only introduced them to a new form of communication but also enhanced their coordination and social skills.

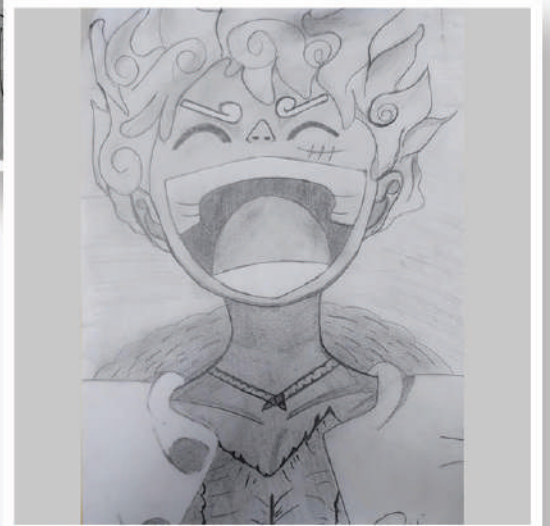

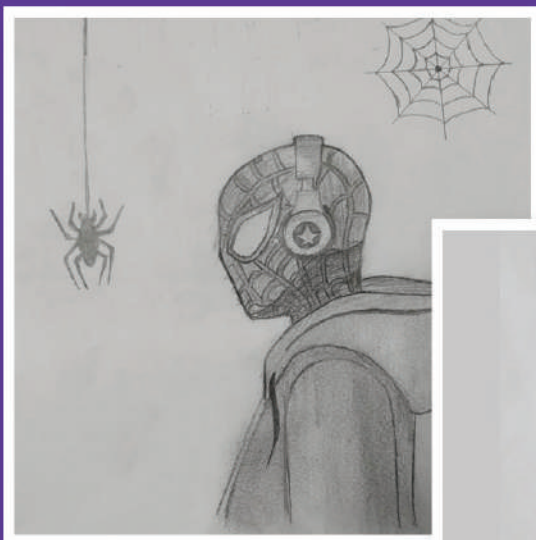

It's amazing how a simple gesture can bridge gaps and fosters connection.

Brushstrokes of Serendipity: Venkateshwaran's Art Unveiled

Serendipity day at Our school was a canvas of unexpected delights, and one such gem was Venkateshwaran .R. U. of Grade 11 , the young artist whose brushstrokes mirrored the world with uncanny precision. His ability to see beyond the ordinary, to distill the world into simple yet evocative lines, left everyone in awe.

Each stroke seemed to dance with the spirit of the moment, transforming the mundane into the extraordinary. Venkateshwaran's artwork stood as a testament to the serendipitous beauty that can be found in the most unexpected places.

Moonlight Magic: A Night of Fun and Friendship at Grade IX Celebration

Recently Our School transformed into a magical wonderland under the celestial glow of the moon for our much-anticipated Moonlight Day celebration for Grade IX students.

The Moonlight Day celebration was not only a night of fun and entertainment but also an opportunity to strengthen the bonds within our students community.

Our Students of Grade IX played some joyful games on this delightful day and enjoyed movie time with their friends and teachers.

Fun Friday Flip Flop Tower Fun for Little Seniors!

Our Little Seniors had a blast in building Flip Flop Towers with paper cups! This exciting activity is not only a fun activity but also just it's a fantastic way to boost essential skills.

Through stacking and balancing, our little builders enhanced their fine motor skills, hand-eye coordination and problem-solving abilities. They learned to be patient to create taller and sturdier towers.

It's amazing to see how a simple stack of cups can lead to so much learning and laughter!

Vibrant Learning on Orange Day: Exploring Enthusiasm and Creativity in Kindergarten

“Orange is the colour of enthusiasm and creativity, a vibrant hue that inspires and energizes.” We celebrated Orange Day in our Kindergarten with an array of exciting activities that not only brightened our classrooms but also enriched our children's learning experiences. Our little ones delved into the wonders of the colour orange through engaging activities like creating an orange volcano, mixing colours to create orange colour and crafting with orange dough.

These activities were more than just fun—they provided valuable educational benefits. The orange volcano experiment, with its fizzy eruption, captured the children's imagination and introduced them to basic scientific concepts in an interactive way.

Colour mixing offered a hands-on lesson in understanding primary and secondary colours, fostering their creativity and problem-solving skills. Crafting with orange dough allowed them to develop fine motor skills and express their artistic talents.

It was a day filled with learning, laughter, and the beautiful energy that the colour orange brings into our lives

Uniting for a Cause: A Successful Blood Donation Drive at SNVV School

Our school recently hosted a successful blood donation camp, encouraging students and staffs, parents and to contribute to a noble cause. The event was well-organized, with ample medical facilities and a dedicated team of healthcare professionals to ensure a safe and efficient process.

The turnout was overwhelming, as numerous individuals stepped forward to donate their blood, demonstrating their compassion and altruism. The donated blood will be invaluable in saving lives and providing essential medical care to those in need.

Our school's initiative was a testament to the spirit of community and the power of collective action.

Nachaa Baby's Market: Little Seniors Shine as Young Entrepreneurs with QR Code Payments

A market is a place where learning, growth, and community come together

Our Little Seniors stepped into the world of entrepreneurship with their very own 'Nachaa Baby's Market'!

They took on the roles of vendors, selling fresh vegetables and fruits to parents and staff. The children embracing modern technology by accepting payments through QR codes was the highlight of the day.

Through this delightful activity, the children learned about the basics of running a market and the convenience of digital transactions. It was a fantastic way for them to understand business fundamentals and gain confidence while having fun.

We're so proud of their enthusiasm and creativity. Way to go, future business leaders!
