3 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus. Isaiah 17: 3

The ending of the Grecian Empire was the transitional stage from antiquity to the modern world of the Roman Empire--Fourth Kingdom.

Because Alexander the Great or Alexander of Macedonia learned his fate thru the Levi, he did not destroy Jerusalem. The revelation of his fate came through the reading from Daniel and on the last day of life his empire was divided among his four generals, e.g. Cassander who took Macedonia and Greece; Lysimachus took Thrace and Asia Minor; Ptolemy took Egypt, Cyprus and nearby Asia Minor; Seleucid took Persian, parts of India, Levant, and Mesopotamia.

The Gentiles Converted to the Religion of Israel

Purposefully overlooked through the centuries in order to generate historical confusion, the children of Israel were forced to accommodate Gentiles by sharing their homeland and religion. For example, the LORD divided Israel into two kingdoms namely the Northern, called Israel, and the Southern, called Judah or Judea. Over time, the Northern Kingdom became the subject of forced deportation due to ongoing sinning by worshiping Babylonian and Canaanite deities. In 734 BC, king Sennenchaback of Assyrian issued the order of expulsion. Some of the poor Israelites were permitted to stay in the land. Over time, under Sargon II, Gentiles started the long history of immigration into the lands of the Northern kingdom and occupying it. The area was renamed the city-state of Samaria.

Because of the land’s sacredness, the immigrants received many plagues and many died, prompting the ruling authority of Assyrian to extend an invitation to the Levi Priests to come back and establish their religion. Thereupon, the Levi blessed the land and taught the people about the laws of Moses. In time, the people adopted the religion of the Israelites. Outwardly, they observed the Leviticus ceremonies, though cultural separation between the Gentiles and Israel remained. Listen to the conversation between the Samaritan woman and Jesus. “How dost thou, being a Jew, ask of me to drink, who am a Samaritan woman? For the Jews do not communicate with the Samaritans.” John 4:8

Hellenism

The Grecian empire delivered to the modern world: (a) the burning desire to learn through reading by building great public libraries; (b) constructing large sport entertaining centers; (c) advanced social forms exhibiting nudity throughout society; (d) translating into Greek the first five books of the Old Testament; (e) the Greeks gave to the world the first image of Jesus Christ, Serapis, being a European; (f) the Greeks introduced political marriage as a military tool to hold two opposing political systems in checked. (g) The Greeks institutionalized the concept of the Trojan horse = using people’ own belief system to betray them.

Next, the arrival imperial Rome upon the stage of world history with an iron fist of law and order being the fourth kingdom on earth. Particular to the religious strife between Judea and neighboring cultural groups in the southern region of Israel, the Roman issued an ultimatum either become part of the province of Judea or be killed by order. The Idumeans (a racial mixture including the Edomites, Moabites, Ammon, and the Ishmaelites) accepted the religious faith of the Judeans thereby bring about political stability.

In sum, often overlooked, a large number of the population in the land of Israel embraced the religion of Judah through involuntary decrees. For sure, some people accepted the religion as a way of life and practiced the Law of Moses. Remember the story about the Good Samaritan.

Going back to the Grecian Empire, Seleucid dynasty included Judea or Judah. Since there were no more lands to conquer, the Grecian Empire went through a long period of consolidation with the aim of achieving a supreme ruler; naturally, this process meant bring all three kingdoms under one powerful ruler by any and all means, e.g. (f) the Greeks introduced political marriage as a military tool to hold two opposing political systems in checked. As a pattern, historical alliances among the children of Israel’s adversaries leaving them holding the short end of the stick, being socially oppressed.

Having a long-range view of its dominance in world history, the Grecian’s cultural imperialism is still with us today, e.g. (a) the burning desire to learn through reading by building great public libraries; (b) public sports by constructing large sport entertaining centers; (c) techniques for social acceptance and practice of sexualized nudity throughout society. After his death, the world slowly became Hellenized as seen in many different sexualized forms around us.

The Hellenistic View of Rationalism vs. the Law of Moses

There were no bounds to the wickedness of Antiochus IV Epiphanes. His executive administration personified reverse engineering the Ten Commandments. Executive orders created the civil war between true bloodline Israelites and the converted Gentiles to Babylonian Judaism. Still today, many people cannot make a distinction between the Judeans who hold the original promise and the converts.

Those in Samaria were the first to offer compromise with Antiochus IV to worship Grecian’s pagan gods and reclamation of their foreskin birthright through reversed circumcision offered through some form of surgery. A telling example for all times that those of faith conversion will seek to revert to paganism, their old ways of life.

In the civil war, many people took to Zeus and started worshiping the goddess Diana. There is nothing new, for Hellenism stylized itself after Babylonian temple of prostitution. The Hellenism came to Jerusalem to stay as seen in the huge constructed military fortress, functioning as a mini city within the city of Jerusalem.

As proof of his commitment to Hellenizing Judea, Antiochus IV Epiphanes imposed economic sanctions to starve the Judeans into submission. Make no mistake; they were facing the option of life or death. Under the conditions of annihilation, the solidified rational schools forever stood opposed to the true believers in the Law of Moses. The rational schools of thoughts: Babylonia Judaism, Hellenistic Judaism, Palestinian Judaism, the Sadducees, Pharisees, the Essenes, and the Zealot movements.

Contributing to the motivational belief that drives these expressed theoretical formations is omitting the evolutionary procedural steps of faith-based mission. They overlooked the exodus and the military victory after victory over foes must greater and powerful than the Israelites.

Some of the traditional bloodline priests gave in to Hellenism under rational argument from those who converted to the Israelite’s religion. What did you say? Yes, the Levites gave in to material rationalization. The Maccabees, hard cord Israelites without contaminated blood, immediately killed a priest and Greek officials when they attempted to desecrate the altar in front of them. A statement that the true Israelites will fight cultural imperialism. The Maccabee family rose to the occasion, they had a faith-based mission.

Determined not to surrender to Hellenism, just about all the people of Jerusalem departed with their goods to the hillside. Remember: (g) The Greeks institutionalized the Trojan horse concept = using people’s own belief system to betray them. Knowing the people would not fight back on Sabbath, directed from Damascus, the military conducted its bloodletting on each Sabbath.

This moment in Judah’s history is one of the finest for demonstrating obedience to the Law. Indeed, this act of non-resistance comes as testimony to the LORD of having learned from the Babylonian captivity. God was indeed very pleased to see his faithful put trust in his law. They passed the test!! Just like the three tribal members of Judah in Babylon who refused to worship the statue of paganism.

The Western Wall is part of Seleucid’s military fort. For the awaken tribal Judah, the Western Wall is a shrine before the LORD to his witness to the bloodletting on order from Damascus supported in full by Babylonia Judaism, Hellenistic Judaism, Palestinian Judaism, and Pharisees. In a word, those who come each day to the Western Wall to pray. Nothing has changed, in essence, they pray for Damascus (king of the North) to finish off tribal Judah. It is virtually impossible for these people to observe the true Hanukah because it was through rational argumentation that thy persuaded the Levite to given in to Hellenization (Hell). The Temple became a place of worship to Zeus and offering pigs and prosecution.

The Western Wall is literally a spiritualized criminal judgment ending execution. (See photo). As a footnote, those who have erred unknowingly must stop going to the Wall now, curse it, and repent.

On this account, God send the Maccabees to the Judeans informing them that they passed the test of obedience and that they must pick up weapons to fight both the traitors and the Seleucid kingdom. Waging the war against Seleucid Kingdom served as a renewal of faith in the LORD’s promise to send the messiah.

It is a contradiction up-in-your-face: Maccabees fought in faith for the coming messiah, in fact, Jesus acknowledged their faith on the feast of Dedication!!!!!! It does not make an ounce of sense praying at the Western Wall for the messiah when they conspired to kill Jesus! The rebuilding of the temple has nothing to do with Jesus in spirit. It will be a full composite of Babylonia Judaism, Hellenistic Judaism, and Palestinian Judaism for a tourist attraction.

It is already in biblical prophecy where Jerusalem will be destroyed to the degree that all relics will be no more. It is childish and deceptive to hold on to the pass that offers no value to the returning children of Israel. Returning to the same house of damnation is a good indication that the tribes will return and repeat the same mistakes and start chasing after other gods as before.

Hellenism created the Arabs of today

The entire region of the so-called Middle East had inhabitants that were of black skinned since time immemorial. The Greeks mixed with tribal nations of Esau or Edom started in the days of Alexandria the Great. This accounts for the skin complexion of today’s Edomites in that region.

Damascus

A review, Damascus and its rulers were assigned the location for carrying out the LORD’s chastisement against Israel and Judah through the authoritative hands of Israel’s anointed prophets. Jesus himself was a target of this divine operational acclamation.

Herod the Great, a close friend of Cyrenius, had the policy support of Rome to carry out the genocide in Bethlehem with the aim of killing baby Jesus. Yes, Cyreus of Damascus knew about the coming messiah from studying regional history and the problem posed to regional authority as the acting head of Syria. He was a close adviser to Julius Caesar.

Conceding on the point there is room for debate on motivational levels of priority for the genocide in Bethlehem and the surrounding cities, but there is no debate over who approved the genocide—Damascus. Conforming to a historical pattern, it is easy to see why Saul/Paul traveled to Damascus to participate in bloodletting of Jesus’ disciples. Hereto, he stood by and gave encouragement to stoning to death Stephen. This time Saul intended to get his hands wet in blood to refresh the genocidal order from Damascus by killing Jesus’ followers and disciples.

On his way to Damascus, God blinded him and he fell off his horse. God appeared to do something different from his ordained model of Damascus. Actually, he did not because until the day when Damascus is completely destroyed Damascus will possess both blessing and curses regardless what empire will come and occupy Damascus.

Please watch carefully. The Syrian army came to arrest Elisha, the prophet of God, because he was the conduit for channeling God’s instructions to the King of Israel on military logistics. When the army arrived at Elisha’s door, he prayed for their blindness and he led them to Samaria where he ordered the king to given the army bread and water and since back to Syria to Benhadad, the king.
There was peace for decades and then Syria launched a full military campaign against Israel by placing siege around Samaria.

In the course of time, King Benhadad took ill and called for Hazael to go to Elisha for a reading on the prospects his recovery. While there, Elisha assigned the kingship of Syria to him, Hazael, as instructed by the LORD. Elisha told Hazael he is doing so with sadness because he will commit atrocities against Israel, e.g. young men burnt, children killed by the sword, and cutting open pregnant women and leave them to die. 2 kings 8:12.

Relationally, Saul had to go back in time to Elisha, when he fell off the horse, in order to come forward in time to Yahushua. Being blinded by the hand of the living LORD, Ananias first placed his hands of Saul, he acknowledged his sin and received baptism. Like Naaman, a might man of valor in the Syria army, he was a leper. He came to Elisha in faith. Arriving at Elisha’s house without seeing him, he received instruction to go to the Jordan River and wash seven times. In blindness, Saul went to the house of Judas as instructed where Ananias, a disciple of Jesus, “putting his hands on him and there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.” (Acts 9:11-18)

Such a profound experience Paul went to Arabia following the pathway of Elijah as far as he could. It is believed he stayed for three years in the community of the Essenes. For sure, he was able to make a rational comparison among the teachings of Babylonia Judaism, the Pharisees, and Jesus’ teaching.

He returned to Damascus where he started his lifelong ministry on the theoretical walk to Emmaus, a continuous epistemic walk where he would explain the doxastic justification of Jesus’ coming, completely separating himself from Judaism and the Pharisees. Nothing has changed, for we see the same dogmas alive in Israel today. Jesus’s walk to Emmaus explained his own doxastic justification in fulfilling prophecy and the Law of Moses. After calling his followers foods, Jesus explained to them why he had to suffer. Upon entering the village of Emmaus, Jesus gave the epistemological concept of himself by first blessing the bread next giving it to his disciples to eat among themselves in divine fellowship.

Paul’s missionary model followed Jesus’ Emmaus doxastic teaching and used his own conversion to illustrate Jesus’s teaching to Emmaus.

In summary, the ordained principles of operational blessings and curses given specific to Damascus, which is still under the ordained principles despite past and present occupants, e.g. Rome and Islam.

A time for realizing historical prophesies.

Take notice of the fourth transgression of Damascus, “and for four” applies exclusively for our times.

- Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:
- I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD. Amos 1: 3-5.

Isaiah tells us Damascus as a city will be destroyed as a city. This will take place soon with a weapon of mass destruction without the effects of radiation as is currently known to the world. Listen:

- “The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.” Isaiah 17: 1-3

A Review on Why and How Damascus will be destroyed SOON

King Sennacherib of Assyria is an index reference. He conquered all defensed cities in Judah and came to Jerusalem with a mighty and very powerful army under the commander of Rabshakeh who told Hezekiah to surrender and the people of Jerusalem not to put faith and trust in the God of Israel to deliver them. Unbelievable how he blasphemed Yahawah! Isaiah 37:36. King Sennacherib returned to Nineveh and killed as foretold by the LORD. Before leaving, Archangel Michael killed 185,000 men in the night sending him back with a victorious feeling of regret.

Today many people speculate about Israel’s preparedness to drop a nuclear bomb on Damascus. I am 100% sure the Zionists will not hesitate to do so. Is there another country with the motive to drop a nuclear bomb? We have already seen bombs dropped by the USA, Britain, and France. China is in the realm of possibility for a prophetic reason.

... “and for four” is given to us knowing Damascus will cease being a city; sins committed against the HOLY SPIRIT are not forgiven, there is no exception as told by Yahushua.

Archangel Michael has the responsibility for destroying Damascus at night.

- 7 “But God shall shoot at them with an arrow [a missal*]; suddenly shall they be wounded. 8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away. 9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing. 10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.” Psalms 64: 7-10.
