ACO Partnership and Physician Recruitment

Lerla discussed the benefits of an ACO, including employment opportunities, tax revenue, healthcare cost reduction, and social impacts such as promoting healthier lifestyles and programs for seniors. She explained that CVCHIP is seeking physicians for a 5-year commitment to build equity within the organization and strengthen its ACO. Lerla introduced the potential partnership with Primary Care Alliance (PCA), highlighting PCA's experience and success in ACOs, and described it as a test year to see how well the two organizations can work together.

CVCHIP's ACO Success and Investment Strategy

NOTE: Health Data Analytics Ranking of 2023 580 ACO's: CVCHIP #14 realizing Triple Aim; #10 Independent ACO's; #6 Chronic Disease Management

ACO Partnership for Florida Medical Group

Sidney Morgan explained that his multi-specialty group in Florida, which started an ACO in 2013, is seeking to partner with CVCHIP to maintain their ACO membership of 7,000-10,000 members. He noted that while CVCHIP would handle ACO-related billing and payments, practices would continue using their existing billing services. Sidney emphasized that CVCHIP would not charge for billing services and clarified that the partnership was designed to be mutually beneficial, with practices unlikely to leave due to the support and benefits provided.
