A few past events - - -

The Alumni game mentioned earlier - it was played between the Huntington and South Huntington graduates, during the Christmas vacation. This was the eighth annual game, sponsored and directed by the Norton AC and it marked the first time South Huntington won.

It took an overtime to do it and the number one ex-Wildcat was Tommy Joyce who scored 35 points in the overtime win. Charlie Forte was tremendous for Huntington with 41. Other MAC'ers who played were Bob Ottewill, Rusty Pettit, Larry Hynds, Bob Brush, Darrin Berger and Angelo Gentile of Huntington; Jeff Furhank, Bob DeAngelis, Tony Ferngren, John Pecorella and Bob Wesnofske of South Huntington.

In the preliminary, our Tomcats defeated the Huntington YMCA 36-17. Campers who played on the Tomcats were Chris Olson, Bill Eckert, Scott Cushing and Joe Gazzini. Also campers from past years, Frank Gugliotta, Jay Howell and Alan Fronkin.

Our camp played in Madison Square Garden again this year, between halves of a Knick-Detroit game. It was quite a thrill and our boys won the game, 13-0 over Echo Lark Camp from Penna. Camper Johnny Casillo was the leading scorer with 3. Al Fronkin, Joe Gazzini, Chris Olson and Scott Cushing are other campers who scored. Campers who played were Glen Miller, Bill Eckert, Gary Petersen, Carl Strazzulla, Mike Johnson and Kevin Capobianco.

Norton AC Football - 1966

The NAC sponsored four football teams this past fall and as usual, many campers played and helped considerably towards the success of each.

The Tomcats posted a 15-0 record, 10-0 in the Western Suffolk Little Football Conference Midget (105 lbs., 12 years) Division. They not only won the league but recorded victories over the Nassau CYC all-stars, the Nassau 105 lb. champ, Syosset (Jeff Nekola was the QB for Syosset), and the North Bergen, New Jersey team. The campers who played were: captains Chris Olson and Gary Petersen, Carl Strazzulla, Kevin Capobianco, and Mike Johnson.

The Bobcats were 7-4 on the year, fourth in the WSLFC Intermediates (115 lbs-13), and third in the playoffs. They also defeated the Florida-bound North Bergen championship team. Campers were - Captain Kevin Knauer and Joe Bauer, Ricky Araujo, Scott Newton, John Casillo, Pete Drucker, Jeff Schneider, Bob Davidson, Rick Johnson and Kevin Reynolds.

The Kittens finished second in the WSLFC Pee wee Division (90 lbs-11) with an 8-3-1 record. They split a pair of post-season games with Philadelphia. Campers were - Steve Stilwell, Ed Strazzulla, Glen Miller and Joe Gazzini.

The Mice also took a second in the WSLFC Peanut group (80 lbs-10). They had a 5-5-1 record and did the same as the Kittens in their post-season series with Philadelphia. The campers were - Keith Hibner, Chris Araujo, Mike Nill, Pat Christie, Jon Olson, Gary Gladstone (A co-capt), Joe Goodwin and Mike Christie.

Tripsville - 66:

We had a first this past summer as we saw two Met games on camp days instead of the usual one. We went on the third day of camp and then back again for Houston. Frank Strazz was one of the happiest since he could sing "Meet the Mets" twice, with an audience.

Palisades was lots of fun as usual. There were also lots of Teddy Bears given to our girl counselors - what else with such sharpshooters as Tommy Joyce and Charlie Forte around and a basketball shooting contest. Another first - nobody was lost this year and we thus, got home sort of early.

Jones Beach had lots of water and lots of NAC'ers in it. The weather wasn't to great, but the water got a workout anyway.

Then, there was a solo trip - where did you go Bob Thele?

and another by Joe Knauer for the month of August and Music school and lastly, how many campers, how many times, almost went to the moon!

Huntington Night at the Mets

and the MC was there. It was a different night for we saw the great Sandy Koufax on a rare offnight. When you are as great as Sandy, even 11 strikeouts and a 6-3 win, is an off night. He has retired now and we were all lucky to see this future "Hall-of-famer" pitch in his last year.

Those who made the trip were: Bobby and Christa Johnson, Gary Petersen, Nancy Prober, Tracey Gladstone, Gary Gladstone, Steve and Ward Henry, Tim and Kevin Mahoney, Fred Weinberg, Kevin, Gary and Joe Knauer, Bob DeAngelis, Pete and Tom Drucker, Carl, Ed, Frank and Gene Strazzulla, Jeff Kramer, Rusty and Claudia Maier, Michelle and Steve Scheideler, Glen Miller, Ingrid Bach, Joke Nellen, Scott Klein, Joe and Jeff Nikola, Chris, Billy, Kim, and Jon Olson, David Lawton, Jeff and Mitch Klein, Gail Lamberta, Jane, Joan and Jerry Furphy, Bill Scholan, Walt Kromholz, Mike and Rick Johnson, Bruce Wichard, Kirk, Wayne and Lauren Brandt, Jim Mola, Bob and Harry Waller, Mickey Bette, John Parmenter, Dave Crawford, John and Kevin Capobianco, Phil Capobianco

Special Clinics

The football staff from Huntington High School was on hand August 17 to spend the last two periods with. The Senior, Junior and Midget boys all benefited from this visit.

Head Coach Joe Lucey, assistants Pete Messbauer, Pete Sansivero, Andy Mitchell and Paul Sullivan, spoke and demonstrated offense, defense, fundamental skills, stance, exchange, faking, passing, blocking, tackling, types of formations and what to look for in a game.

Former Huntington High All-County Lacrosse player Rusty Pettit, spent an afternoon with us showing all the skills and knowhow so necessary for this ever-increasing popular game. Rusty is now playing Lacrosse at U. of Maryland, there on a scholarship. He is a former Norton AC camper, too, back in the old days at the Moose Club.

"A day with the Knicks" returned to the Norton AC for the second straight year. Number three is coming up in 1967. It was lots of fun watching and listening to our friend, Willis Reed, and his mates, Ermette Bryant, Dave Stallworth and Henry Akin. They conducted a clinic, answered questions, gave demonstrations, ran drills for the campers, and contests, played against some of our staff (Ston puffing, Jim), and then went swimming with our kids.

Willis was chosen as one of the ten best players in the league this season, as he started in the All-Star game. The other three are all playing full time with the Knicks, New York's professional basketball team.

Norton Notes - AC Anecdotes

The Harvard Hoods of group 18 made lots of promises as follows: I, Chris Errig, being of the youngest generation at the AC, promise to become legal age to be a camper and then participate and know what I'm doing.... Keith Johnson, will bring back to camp a new approach to the English language.... Gene Strazzulla, to walk around puddles instead of through them.... Ray Arthur, to train my brain to bring home what I bring to camp every morning... Janet and Carolyn Aguis, not to try as hard as we did this year.... Gary Nill, to lift weights and become the strongest guy at the AC.... Kathy Pearsall, to practice steal the bacon using Grampa's buses.... Kevin Mahoney, to spend 8 full weeks at camp without interruptions.... Robin & Tracey Verspoor, to stop telling Mommy on each other.... Cindy Petrone, to make a little more noise so I can be heard (ha).... Timmy Mahoney, to leave the leadership of the nursery to brother Kevin.... Lura Johnson, to wait my turn with patience.... Wendy Brofman, not to push my counselor in the pool.... Jeananne Johnson, to wait until at least 9:30 am to spend my dime.... Eddie Beck, to see Uncle Mickey and not leave him broke when I go back to my group... and the counselors, to rest up for next summer.

Stfut is a word. It represents a wonderful group of senior girls...very wonderful. Stfut is Tufts spelled backwards. The reason for the backwardness is that if the name is backwards, maybe the won-lost record could also be put backwards, and we would win the league.... All we have to do is show up for the game and you know something wonderful is going to happen.... No, we're not going to win, but we're gonna have an awful lot of fun losing!.... Stfut describes the group, now you have to know who is in it--to understand why they're so unbelievable. There is something about 11-12-13-14 year olds that is hard to describe, but it exists. They aren't bothered by earth shattering problems. In fact, the most Earth Shattering that fazed them was the time that Sue Nemeth rushed out of the lockerroom with what she thought was her bathing suit on, which turned out to be her underwear..... Take Lynn McCann for example, she's not satisfied with the face she has, she has to make faces..... Lefty Louis Gladstone, cousin fights and all, if she wanted to hit lefty, she would -- if she wanted to hit righty, she would -- and if she didn't want to hit at all, she'd do that too, and quite well..... If you have a counselor who likes to talk, you all wind up doing alot of it, like.... the correct way to say "Lon Gisland", Lori Schweitzer's gyp joint.... and whether the pitch Joy Fischer rolled across the plate was a ball or not.... and Michelle Scheideler's engagement to Donna "flock".... Then the things you remember like - triple teaming Laura Aguis in basketball.... the birthday cake and the tickled fancy.... Donna's ring-ga, 57 lots and the "kill" sign.... Joy's voice.... Lynn's 3 month supply of bobbie-pins.... Crazy Bach talk and "Elhemina".... Dale Bernhart's diving school.... getting chased by the "dunka-you".... Linda Petrone's blue face during the swim meet.... Toby Ruberto's "swim" in the pool.... Linda's fight song during Volleyball.... Gail Lamberta's way of telling time.... and the famous last words of everyone "Oh no, Laura isn't here", before a game.

Camp started off great for Cornell, they won their first game 29-8 as the opposing pitcher walked in 15 runs, no names mentioned to protect the guilty. the second game was another win in shuffleboard - then came trouble as Laura Aguis started camp, and on the other team.... We survived and even won a basketball as Dale, Nancy (Red) and Debbie held Laura scoreless in a 7-0 game. A familiar cry when a basketball is about to start is "There is Jane Morris", and the answer is always - sitting on the bench drinking kool-aid..... The arrival of Diane Sainola provided the group with added strength in the games and a comedian in time of need..... Dale was group Ping-Pong champ but was on vacation when the final matches were held - so Jane took over and won the trophy.... Track and swimming were definitely not Cornell's strong points.... Big plans for the sleep out, shaving cream and water balloons, but a spy was there and everything was confiscated, without the group knowing it - lots of surprised and sad faces, and even more so when everything was returned the next day at GA..... Fun days included the day we beat the YMCA girls 15-2 and 15-7....the day we took a hike in the woods and nobody got poison ivy except the counselor....famous last words: Debbie Fischer, "There's Jane Morris?"....Jane Morris, "Can Debbie and I go first"....Red, "Can I play second base?" (I don't know, can you?)....Carol Casillo, "Am I up last again?"....Sherri Schweitzer, "I'm Sherri, not Lori"....Mary Mehler, "Let's sit and digest"....Diane Sainola, "Prove it"....Tory Nemeth, "Do I have to go in the water and pass my test?"....Liz Timberly, "You owe me a soda"....Pat Scitz, "I don't know how to play"....Terry Leeds, "Am I in yet?"....Laura Claflin, "That's first period and do I have to play?"....Dale Bernhart, "OK"....Counselor, "Move it, get off the dime, way to go girls"....Group 17, "Boy are we gonna get you in the sleepout" (Foiled).

Columbia, Group 16 - Remember when - - Linda Mehler got the ball over the net in volleyball....Tracey Brofman learned how to dive after 7 weeks....Janet Sherrow's courage the night of the sleepout....Darlene Rhatigan and Colleen Johnson and the track meet....the day we almost won the swim meet, poor Linda, she just couldn't pull herself out of the pool....the day we lost the volleyball game 28-2, then came back to win the next time.... Then August 17, the day we finally won our first basketball game thanks to Darlene and Jill Feustel.... Colleen Johnson and her leadership....the whole group's spirit....Lynn Arthur with her hiccoughs....Linda Mehler and her "Oh junk"....Robin Tahler and her crush on Bobby Otterwill (She likes monkeys).

Scalo (Dutch University) survived the summer and won the Junior girls title. Some say we won on skill, determination, concentration and expert coaching, but, this is only partly true. Scalo's girls had more luck than Janet Sherrow's neckless of magic charms, and Lynn Bernhart's mountain of beer can flip tops put together....Barbara Lee helped Columbia (the other team) and smacked a HR....Janet thought archery was more fun with her eyes closed - result, a bullseye....Then the big game - time was against her, Columbia was against her, the odds were against her, the pressure was on, but Christelle Kromholz came through. She pitched a 1-hitter and struck out 4 in a 2 inning game. Bases loaded two down, full count and Chris made a great catch to win her own game....Lauren Brandt also came through in the clutch - last person to go, last horseshoe and she flipped a ringer which won the game....Lynn Bernhart led the way in the swim meet win....Doreen Gallo almost eliminated Columbia in horseshoes by aiming at the bench instead of the stake....Bonnie Claflin enjoyed a pop-corn fight at 6:00 am after the sleepout....Even more, she enjoyed waking everyone up....Diane Ackerman and Karen Reilly were the only sane two in the group.... Scalo won and lost as a team, laughed and cried as a team....and even missed the Otterbein Cardinals as a team....

The Transylvania Poewees (Why Transy Steph?) have their future career discussed and decided by their counselors: Melanie Fischer - telephone operator, due to her remarkable talent for mangling messages in the game "Telephone", for example, a message beginning "peter piper picked a peck..." suddenly changes to "two shoes, two socks, and two flowers in a red tree" once Melanie passes it on.... Linda Mill - Jet Set society debutante, due to her powers of friendly persuasion (pummeling Kim until he admits being her boy friend) and her tendency of collecting rings, four on one hand....Mandy Hibner - Prof of Greek Classics, since she already has an achilles heel that mysteriously begins hurting her only before games; or, failing that, a Professional Troll....Joanne Lee - Mermaid, because rain or shine, she's always in the pool, or possibly a gourmet (Italian Bread with Peanut Butter and Jelly)....Tina Araujo - Houdini the second, due to her extraordinary aptitude for disappearing whenever you want her.... Carol Stilwell - Social gossip columnist, because she knows and reports everything that's going on, and sometimes a little more....Christa Johnson - Interpreter, because if she can understand brother Keith, no foreign language will be a challenge to her....Jamie Ruberto - Sculptor, in a new media, mud, .... Pat Falkowski - Silent Movie Star, since she hasn't much to say....Claudia

Maier - America's secret weapon, two million megatons of giggle.....Jennifer Poole - Pro base thief for the Mets, base stealing is legal in baseball, but Jon, while playing first base, actually picks up the base and hides it, much to the baserunner's dismay.....Joan Murphy - An umpire with a smile, something new in baseball tradition.....Kathy Aguis - Rip Van Winkle, the only one who slept at the sleepout.....Deide Olson - First Women President of the US, none of her opponents will ever get a word in edgewise (Wonder who she gets that from).....Last, and possibly least, Tracey Gladstone - honorary member of Peewees for although she's a senior girl, she's still young of heart and light of head!

Who will ever forget - - - the time Jamie hit Steph with a water balloon and Nancy, Lauri and Steph threw her in the pool, clothes and all.....the game that supplanted "Duck, duck, Goose" as favorite - "Romco and Juliet" or was it "Romiet and Julio" or "Romco and Julio" or "Rolly-rolly and Judy", Linda Nill.....The coinage of a new game for ping-pong inspired by Nancy's instruction "Flexible Strength".....bottle-cap collecting and the mud crisis.....Christa's good luck trolls which she rubbed on each team member before a game.....singing "Hula-hop" to Mickey as he squirted us with his official 007 water pistol.....the romance scare in Group 14 between Lauri (she likes younger men) and nursery group member Gary Nill, Steph and Nursery man Timmy Mahoney (He likes older girls), Christa and Ames, and finally Nancy and everyone.....Games and swimming with Joke and Ingrid.....The paper game, we still say Deide hits too hard.....cake and songs on Mickey's birthday, he never did say how old he is?.....cereal and juice (and marshmallows, fritos, pretzels and potato chips) for breakfast after the sleepout.....the first time Melanie jumped into the pool, a historical and hysterical event.....Mandy doing the turtle float and talking about it for the rest of the summer.....Tina's question - asking about the Midget groups - "Then are the minatures sleeping out?"

Group 13, the boy pee-wees - and some pertinent notes on its members: Ray Schultz - a fine athlete and a one man lost & found. He once owned a black sweatshirt, a blue sweatshirt and a green sweater, but no more.....Matt Whitney - a real horse trader, gave Greg Sosa 4 chocolate covered raisins for 2 yoodles and sold a 5¢ bag of fritos to Mitch Klein for a dime.....Greg Sosa - the karate expert of the group, tried to demonstrate on brother Steve, Steve ducked and Greg hit the pool fence.....Mike Magyar - the romeo of the group as the Pee-wee boys spent many happy days at the AC chasing the Nursery girls through the fruit trees.....Kenny Mott - another Romeo, but he preferred older women - he showed his affection for Teenie by throwing her new sneakers in the pool.....Paul Gallo - longed to be a pro golfer - after five holes at the NAC miniature course, he would tee up and drive the ball into the woods.....Larry Perlmutter - dominated the group in the field of cards and defeated Ray Schultz in a friendly game of poker with a flush in spades, a full house and 3 tens.....Packy Christie - Displayed unusual talent as a diver, he entered the water with a resounding thud and came up with a red chest - but he tried!.....John Parmenter - a heads up baserunner, famous for passing runners in front of him, running from third to second to first, and double plays - by the other team, ofcourse.....Jeff Mehler - hero of Camp Runamuck, played with water pistols, and one drop meant, "you're dead! - Jeff always appeared soaked to the skin but said, "just wounded"....

Group 12 - the other boy pee-wees - what a team at the beginning of the year, 8-0, then reality set in and last place followed, even following the girls, which is normal in other ways, but not in league standings.....This was the summer of the duck, mouse, doots, juice, dodger, frown, worm, snake and ending with fudge.....One of the favorite pastimes was hiking - one day followed a road and saw tracks, Steve thought it was a tank - Roger heard drums so must have been Indians - the boys watched for arrows and bear traps - then a witches house, one that ate little boys - so lots of hustle back to camp, can't miss swim period.....

one of the favorite details was getting the garbage box after lunch - lots of volunteers, different each day, and he would fight and claw his way through the wilds of the jungle to bring back the box for the group he loved so much..... One final warning from group 12, if you ever see a wet handprint on the wooden wall around your swimming pool, beware the mark of the Frown.....

Although Group 11 finished the camp season in last place for the Midget boys, there were many bright spots during the year. As the camp season moved into the final weeks of play, the men from Miami played the role of the spoiler....."We won 4 of 7 tourneys, Golf-"Arnie" Schweitzer, Fluke baseball - Jon Olson, swimming and boxing.....Nobody can forget when Kelly topped the ringer to win a crucial horseshoe match.....or the day we held the Grizzer to 4 points in basketball.....the slugging of Rich Pino and KO Capo in whiffleball.

The year of the comeback for group 10, West Virginia. Starting off with a 1-11-1 record, they finished with a rush, 9-1 over the last 10 games, good enough for the Midget boys championship. A rundown of the members of group 10: Mike Nill - the captain and pound for pound, the toughest kid around, also one of the nicest. He won the wrestling, placed 2nd in the water massacre and on the last day, he scored 15points on two turns in horseshoes.....Ralph Miranda - weighing in at 118lbs, the main reason for the comeback to the title; power of the squad in any sport; won his weight division in wrestling by beating two 60 lb. opponents - won the water massacre.....Ned "noodle" Spenadel - pound for pound, one of the lightest kids around; another wrestling winner and lots of speed.....Bobby Johnson - Led the league in injuries, a team sparkplug; received 3 stitches in the mouth during a boxing match (Does this have a hidden meaning?).....Jeff "Pearl" Perlmutter - The gentleman of the group, walked softly and carried a big brain.....David "Pugsly" Hicks - his dashing good looks helped the team in the clutch games vs. the girls.....Gary Tilkin - immortalized in song, "There is Tilkin, where is Tilkin?" also the camps cleanup man.....Jo-Jo Conrad - A fun guy, also a touch of Dennis the Menace. Jo Jo was never dull.....Bill Craig - His improvement was outstanding. Scored big in horseshoes and the water massacre in the big stretch run.....Pete Brunell - His shirts were the hit of the camp. A good all-around athlete and good guy.....Tom Drucker - His constant improvement was an inspiration to the rest of the group; Tom was a great dancer.....

The story of Group 9 could also be called the Keith Griswold story as he led the team in just about everything - hitting, pitching, TD's, baskets, track wins, ping-pong etc. But everyone contributed - there couldn't be a team without them all.....Vinnie Gallo - a spark in the track meet and a fine football player.....Jerry Furphy - Shuffleboard, golf and horseshoes plus a fine halfback and second baseman.....Bob Vignali - a big help in horseshoes, shuffleboard and baseball.....Jeff Warshay - a spark in baseball both in the field and at bat.....Frank Strazzulla and Joel Kleinman - jacks of all trades (whats the next line?); plus the camp leaders in "Most rides on the shoulders of the New York Knickerbockers".....Dave Lawton - The title of Most Improved in group 9.....Some highlights of the season: Frank Strazz trying to tackle Ralph Miranda....2 straight ringers by Bob Vignali...3 grand slams by Keith Griswold...Dave Lawton's first catch of a pass, and it went for a TD....Griz pitched 4 innings, striking out 12 men...The Strazz swimming across the pool and diving off the board.

At the end of the first two weeks of camp, group 8 had an unblemished record in the Junior boys - no wins; all in all though, a good summer - no pennant but lots of fun trying.....How about the warm water and high tide at

Jones Beach.....Fred Penton, do you sleep with that radio.....Group awards: Gary Gladstone - speedster, hands down.....Drew Nill - basketball for his all time high of 10 points.....Jeff Nikola - perfect attendance.....Chris Araujo - Purple Heart.....Paul Kearney - The Velvet voice.....Pete Fisher - Vic Tanny award and second in the speedsters club.....Bob Walker - Most sodas in one summer.

Group 7 had a shot at the pennant most of the way, losing out in the final weeks of play. Some of the standouts: Wayne Brandt - lots of speed and savvy in all sports (He played against us this past fall with Kings Park and was their star - he scored on a 60 yard run against our Kittens as we won 13-6 and 40-0).....Tommy Hicks - A good all-around athlete, nice boy and good sport.....Glen Miller - bombs away on the basketball court, but the amazing thing, the ball usually went in the basket.....Pete Kleinman - turning into a real horseshoe player, but he must remember not to walk in back of a shooter - ask him how a horseshoe tastes.....Joe Goodwin - the makings of a good football player.....Henry Cromwell - one of the best soccer players for his age, anywhere.....A great sleepout with pizzas and soda, plenty of water balloons for all with a little shaving cream to top it off. Great ghost stories and flying saucers ended the evening.

On the 27th of June, Group 6, the UCLA Bruins, started their run to daylight and the junior boys pennant. They were led by such stars as Bill Eckert, Mike Smilowitz and Doug Albert (You have to stay Doug, for the teams sake!)(Easy Bob).....After being behind by 4 games after 4 weeks, the Bruins came on strong.....After 6 weeks of baseball, Keith Hibner got a base hit.....After 7 weeks of baseball, Bob Gorle swung at a pitch.

Group 5, the Fighting Irish from Notre Dame, had a rough year at the club. The group consisted of Joe "Cassino" Gazzini, the captain, Edward Strazzulla, the co-captain, Bill "Golden Boy" Scholan, Bill Rose, Jeff Kramer, Ward "Pussyfoot" Henry, The gruesome-tuosome of Bob "Vehle" and Cliff Gaines, Mike Agius, Mike Christie and Bruce "Strangers in the Night" Wichard.....It was a first place club most of the way until two boys left camp and Cassino went on a week's vacation - then started the longest losing streak in the history of Notre Dame, 13 in a row.....Cassino returned and showed his versatility in the tourneys.....He beat Bill "Ecoooo" Eckert in both the golf and fluke baseball finals.....Jeff Kramer put up a fight in ping-pong, winning the first two matches before bowing in the championship to Ecooooo....

The senior boys, group 4, the Arkansas Razorbacks....."Twas the week before the league started and we were 4-0....Twas the week after the league started and we were 0-8" - - - A horrible start but Arkansas pulled itself together to be a contender down the stretch.....Started out with 15 men and then acquired Penn State (also known as Andy Bergstein). He stayed for a week, should have been more.....What ever happened to Danny Culleton?.....Hey Newty, remember the lunch periods and how you took on the whole camp, and Kevin your faithful brother who always protected you.....Christopher Olson, Sweet boy ba . Our greatest horseshoe player, yuk, yuk.....Steve Reed and Pio Traenor were only with the group half a summer but proved to be lots of fun. Steve is a good baseball and basketball man while Pie led the league in lunch periods.....My man Freds. Can't say enough about Mr. Weinberg - he tried all the time, with a little encouragement and improved immensely. A good example of practice makes perfect.....Joe Famiglietti - looked bashful, but don't believe it.....Mr. Football, Joe Bauer, good in other sports too, but a powerful toe for the only once-beaten Razorback team.....Tough luck Scott Cushing, Maybe we should make surfing a league sport.....Steve Agius, a last week man, powerful, a coach's delight.....John Fuhrman, work on the swing buddy, good glove, good attitude.....The last two we mention were beauties, Tom Davidson and Bob Waller, great to have them on the team - smart and good athletically..... Do you remember * * * * - Binger getting stitches over the eye and us losing the football game.....Conrad, the friendly Hood.....Volleyball comments - two hands, try for everything.....Joe Bauer as ping-pong champ who didn't play in the tourney.....Bing kicking the soccer ball the entire length of the field.....Dan Gallo as best NBA scorer in the business.....Tom Davidson with the end-around play in football, unbeatable.....John Fuhrman getting minus 30 and almost minus 40 on one turn in shuffleboard.....John again, doing a fine butterfly stroke the entire distance of the breast-stroke race.....

U. of Alaska, group 1 - Remember "The friendly hood" Conrad, with his sharp haircut and his rolled up sleeves - most of the time he was with the group, but when he wasn't, he was in the locker room, combing his hair - how was the sleepout, Ken.....Then there was Mike Joyce and his non-league softball games.....Bob Aguis and his baseball.....Optimism at the beginning of the year - then the cellar - then a comeback with lots of power in all sports from Mike and Rick Johnson, Kevin "Klod" Knauer and Jim Mola.....Jim pitched a no-hitter for a 2-1 win.....Rick won the fluke baseball title, Kevin was the golf champ, despite Dan the Man's own club..... Others who helped spark two comebacks were John Casillo, Pete Drucker, Jeff Schneider, Mark Whitney and Ken Conrad....

The 1966 Upsala Binies, Group 3. Coach Ooty Ottewill, having lost the head coaching spot at Otterbein College from the previous summer, was hired by Upsala in NJ, after the season was already a week old. He found a group of fine young athletes who had been lured to the NJ campus by tantalizing scholarship offers. Such established stars as Williard Ball Olson, Jeff Klein, Len Fisher (NFL - Naturally fat Len), Marcus Honning will undoubtedly be driving expensive convertibles as soon as they reach the legal driving age.....The younger men, all up-and-comers (as opposed to down and goers), were pulling in as much as 50 quid a week, laundry money - with incomes like that, the Binies (as named by Len Fisher), were the only guys at the AC (alias VEC - very exclusive club), who were sending their AC shirts to the laundry, with such accompanying notes as "Keep the starch around the sleeves" - bigger biceps, you know.....The full Upsala roster included - Dan "The Man" Rasmussen, Will Olson, Jeff F. Klein, The Copostoli brothers, Mt. Len Fisher, Tony "Swimming" Poole, John "Vig the Pig" Vignali, Norman Vincent Tahler (Tahler from Upsala), Tony Falkowski (out with injuries most of the way) and Laurance Perlman.....All fans and observers of the big 4 conference - Arkansas, UCLA, Alaska and Upsala (smallest enrollment of the four), will agree that it was the greatest pennant race in the history of the AC.....Upsala battled UCLA for four weeks and after wearing them down, picked on the Arkansas Razorblades with hopes of sending them to that great "graveyard of defeated razorblades" (At least Upsala was never dull).....The Blades and the Binies were neck and neck down the stretch with the final outcome depending on a decimal point from Steve "Turtle" Gleit's sliderule.....Some of the Binie highlights - Olson's back to back mound victories in the heat of the race which included 3 consecutive strikeouts in the last inning with the bases loaded and none out - for this, Willie O won a co-athlete of the week award - Jeff Klein's 24 points against the Blades, was the other.....Dan the Man won the first of these awards by copping the "Binie Open".....The Pig's clutch interception in the Dust Bowl vs. UCLA.....Swimming Poole - basketball defender supreme.....Norman Vincent's rebounding.....Jeff's gunning but connecting for a 20ppg average.....Willie's ballhandling and playmaking.....Lightbulb Larry Perlman's constant bright remarks.....NFL's greatly improved moves.....The Man and the bird and his golden putter.....Harrel's long one-hander.....Klein's clutch ringer vs. Scott Muey.....The rise and the fall of the Strolley Shuffleboard team.....The great water-basketball victory starring everyone, specially Vig, our inept football team.....Fisher in the water massacre.....Norm Tahler's clutch obstacle race victory.....The Capo's and their friend from Alaska - "In this corner".....and finally, thanks Mr. Fisher for that great meal.....Study hard boys, or you'll lose those scholarships.....

Group 3, UCLA - the best in each sport for our group - Fluke Baseball - Kirk Brandt, Ping Pong - Barry Kleinman, Baseball - Bob Davidson, Basketball - Orlando Ashford, Football - Orlando Ashford, Soccer - Bob Davidson, Horseshoes - George Feustel, Shuffleboard - Barry Kleinman and Carl Strazzulla, Volleyball - Orlando Ashford, Wrestling - Rick Araujo, Swimming - Gary Peterson, Track - Burt Webster, Golf - Kirk Brandt.....Steve Gehrlich: "What do we have next period, Al?" - Al, "Lacrosse, Steve" - Steve: "Tho?".....Tom Howard guarded Barry Kleinman for 5 minutes in BB game, 3rd week of camp.....Burt Webster to Al Hemer(as Al passes pool heading towards basketball court with two basketballs under his arms) - "What do we have next, Al?".....Rick Araujo after wrestling Dan Rasmussen (75 lbs - vs. 175), "Well, I almost beat him..... Each member of UCLA made his contribution - the Captain, Rick Araujo, many pts, some weak, like his shot on the BB court, many strong like, uh, well, ah, ???, .....The big O, left after 7 weeks, the sparkplug in most sports, he was really missed.....Burt Webster - the team veteran, a leader throughout the year - He thought pitching was easy, and then he tried, bombs away - the horseshoe judge.....Pete was a solid performer, middle line in VB, a pitcher, group 3's water balloon man, and "sweetie".....Bob Davidson - candidate for model camper, fine soccer man - worked hard, showed lots of spirit.....George Feustel, an A #1 horseshoe thrower, lots of ringers and knocked out lots from others.....Kirk Brandt - another "What do we have next, Al" man - Also a rival in the winter to the NAC as he was Kings Park's high Scorer against us in a Bobcat win - one of the best all-around in the group.....Big Barr "The hat" Kleinman - one of the more colorful players (not counting the freckles) always had his hat on, and always in there fighting- was quite upset one day when Cord nailed his hat to the bench - known for his deadly shot from the left corner at the AC BB court.....Carl Strazzulla - spelled Strazoooola by Al, was the "let's go" man - always hustling and always lending to the spirit of the club.....Steve Gehrlich, Pete Spence, Joe Nikola and Tom Howard were part timers at the AC. Steve did a good job in the water massacre, coming in second.....Pete was one of the best natured UCLA's.....Tom was known as the OTL man in group 3.....Joe was here only two weeks.....Heard throughout the summer at the AC - Ooty at the Mike - - - "Now batting for the University of the state of California, the City of Los Angeles".....Our first two weeks were spent winning lots and resting comfortably in first place - but needless to say, we returned to normal group 3 form, and slid to the bottom....But we enjoy the cellar - as Burt Webster would say "Someone has to come in last" - BUT WHY US?

A few random notes about Camp-1966!

Crazy hat day was held during our last week at camp and there were some way out versions - a few family projects, and lots of originality - the Lee girls made quite a hit as did the Motts and the Nills, Strazz, Fang, Vinnie, The Craigs, and all the others who had the guts to compete.....Then we had the marathon cheaters - those who thought they were getting away with something by only running a short way - all they did was fool themselves.....and Charlie Forte, boy golf course designer - He held the course record, and for a very good reason - he was the first one to play a round - then the Nursery played and there went Charlie's record.....Trips for the little guys and gals were to Mickey's house for a cookout-swim party and to the Bronx Zoo while our big guys & gals went to see the Mets.....and Teenie's FortPunyak - boy did she get wet.....our games against other camps - split in baseball, won all the basketball & volleyball .....and finally the Trucks, goodbye to a pair of hard working friends - they had a rough summer, but certainly earned a "out to pasture" finish.....and in closing,, lets hope Barbara and her nursery group return from the woods before camp starts again in 1967!

So long for awhile, gang!
Hope you all enjoyed your summer with us and we are together again, real soon!

And notice my head is down to normal size
again - thats after a summer at the NAC, learning to be a gracious
and good winner!
part of our
sportsmanship
training!
