

Full biography

Alain Bakayoko - Director - Commercialization and Innovation, Life Sciences and Health Technologies

Alain holds a Bachelor's degree in International Business and E-Commerce and a Certificate in Business Management from HEC Montréal. He is currently completing a Graduate Diploma in International Public Policy at the Université de Sherbrooke. Alain has over ten years of experience working on various aspects of business analysis and economic development. He has acquired specialized knowledge and skills in entrepreneurship, industrial and economic development and has worked in various types of organizations, from start-ups to large corporations, foundations and public administration. He has more than seven years of experience in supporting, financing and analyzing business projects for the Quebec's life sciences and health technologies industry.