

Full biography

Paul L'Archevêque - Director of Innovation at Quebec's Ministry of Health and Social Services (MSSS)

Mr. Paul L'Archevêque was appointed the first ever Director of Innovation at Quebec's Ministry of Health and Social Services (MSSS) in April 2018, in line with the Quebec government's Strategy for Life Sciences 2017-2027. Mr. L'Archevêque is a Master in neurophysiology from the Université de Montréal and has been a key figure in many high profile developments in Canadian life sciences. He was notably CEO of GENOME Quebec for 8 years and possesses an extensive experience in the private pharmaceutical sector. M. L'Archevêque was a senior partner at CapCOGITO, a consulting firm providing services for the integration of innovation in the public Health and Social Services sectors.