

Grand Hotel Convento di Amalfi

Overlooking the famous Amalfi coastline, this converted 13th-Century convent offers an incredibly private setting for your cliffside wedding.

Dramatically carved into the cliffside, the Grand Hotel Convento di Amalfi is a stunning choice for a destination wedding on the Neapolitan Riviera. Once a monastery for Capuchin monks, this iconic medieval building is now a converted hotel with a real sense of history and old-world charm. This offers a full service wedding, it's a great setting for larger groups and a completely private celebration. Choose between two gorgeous venues for the ceremony: the historic 13th-Century Cloister and the spacious terrace where you can have a beautiful al fresco wedding overlooking the Amalfi Coast.

Follow your romantic exchange of vows with photos and drinks on one of the picturesque outdoor terraces. Head to the Belvedere Terrace and celebrate with a cocktail as you watch the sun set over the Tyrrhenian Sea. Or visit the romantic Passeggiata dei Monaci, an enchanting old walkway that overlooks a stunning panorama of the coastline.
