

Governors' Main Camp, Kenya

You can have a magical ceremony on the plains, on the riverbank or at sunset on the deck at Governors' Camp complete with a Maasai wedding dance. Surrounded by the sounds of the African bush, your special day will be steeped in memories that you can share just the two of you, with a small group or even a larger guest list with children – all are possible here. And what better way to end your big day than with a romantic game drive under the African sunset, in search of the Big Five.

To make your celebration even more memorable, take a hot air balloon safari over the plains after your ceremony, plant an indigenous tree to commemorate your union and indulge in a Champagne candlelit private bush dinner. If coming with a group of guests, everyone will love the twice daily game drives in search of magnificent wildlife.

The original deluxe tented camp, in a wonderful location inside the Maasai Mara reserve.

You'll spend some memorable nights under canvas here. On going to bed you'll find a hot water bottle waiting for you, and each morning before your first game drive there'll be a welcome hot drink brought to your tent to ease you into the day.
