

San Francesco Cloister, Italy

Sorrento offers unrivalled beauty perched above the Gulfo di Napoli, surrounded by spectacular hills and abundant in wisteria, jasmine and tangy lemon trees.

One of the most beautiful wedding venues here is the 14th Century San Francesco Cloisters that flanks the San Francesco church, overflowing with bougainvillea and vines. Choose this venue for a spectacular floral wedding that is tranquil and serene. It's great for large groups and if you fancy exchanging vows in a unique medieval monastery. There are plenty of optional extras here including a violinist for your ceremony, cocktails and canapés and hairdressing and makeup for the bride.

We recommend hiring a professional photographer so you can make the most of the breathtaking gardens and amazing sea views. And after your ceremony you could hop over to the beautiful island of Capri for a Champagne lunch. We recommend staying at the elegant Grand Hotel Excelsior for an extravagant evening reception in the luxurious Vittoria dining room where exquisite gastronomical delights await.
