

Danielle Roberts

Danielle Kunkle Roberts is a founding partner and senior executive at Boomer Benefits, a national agency specializing in Medicare-related insurance products since 2005. Serving thousands of Medigap policyholders in 48 states, Boomer Benefits helps baby boomers learn the ropes regarding Medicare. Her agency has more than 300,000 social media fans in the baby boomer generation.

A nationally-recognized expert in the Medicare-sector of the health insurance industry, Danielle is a Medicare Supplement Accredited Advisor and a member of the Forbes Finance Council. She is also a past president of the Fort Worth chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters. She has spoken about Medicare to hundreds of groups over the last decade and has been frequently published and interviewed about the topics of Medicare and preparing for the costs of healthcare in retirement.